Synopsis

Three political forces are trying to destroy the USA as it is now! Two are foreign, and one is domestic, although under foreign influence. The three are together against a common enemy: The United States of America and Conservatism. Our country is in grave danger, and the American People and the World's community need to get smart and not let ignorance prevail. Education about history is now a must. We need to be sharp and recognize the perils at sight. This book attempts to make the public aware of the present evil plot. The author's comments and books are banned on Social Media, Google, AOL, and other outlets under Postmodern Liberals (Democrat Party) control.

Greed is the driving force; Authoritarianism, the weapon, Totalitarianism is the system, Fear, the tool, Money, the key, and Totalitarian absolute Power, is the ultimate goal; Communist China's style. Billionaires, High-Tech CEOs, Postmodern Liberal Politicians, in command of the Democrat Party, and Radical Islamists are together in an odd coalition. They will share the Booty in a bloody battle among the winners. They are trying to destroy Donald J. Trump as a first step. After eliminating the first obstacle, they will focus on the USA destruction to change our country into a Totalitarian Society, with a Big Government, which it's Political Elite, will dictate norms that regular people would follow without questioning or opposition. No need to think. Collective behavior is desired. The elite will do it for them, as they have learned the style from Communist China. They enjoy the profits of doing business with the Asian Giant without the guilt of exploiting workers themselves. Chinese do it to their subjects, used to survive in dire conditions for centuries, and as a first installment sent us the Coronavirus, Made in Wuhan, China, for export. We will never know if it was intentional or a dreadful mistake. The Democrat Party didn't waste time and mounted a fraudulent election, with millions of votes by mail, without any signature or Identity verification, dead people, illegal immigrants, and even scanning the same ballots up to ten times into the voting machines, also suspected of data manipulation in Joe Biden's favor.

J. Pelegrin has identified the strategy. The present work is uncovering the plot, recalling history, consulting the ancient Vedas, and exposing the daily maneuvers by the actors involved in what we call, without a doubt, the most significant treasonous attempt to damage the United States of America. The Media helps by lying and outpouring massive fake news while hiding Donald J. Trump's achievements. Active Obama holdovers keep hitting from the darkest "Shadow Government." sabotaging the President's actions daily.

"A BRUTAL ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY" (The All-Time Enemies on the March), a book like no other!

FOREWORD:

Supreme Court Justice Robert Jackson, appointed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, wrote in the foreword of the book "Law in the Middle East" (1955): "Islamic Law offers the American lawyer a study in dramatic contrasts. Even casual acquaintance and superficial knowledge reveal that its striking features relative to our law are not likenesses but inconsistencies, not similarities but contrarities. In its source, its scope, and its sanctions, the law of the Middle East is the direct opposite of Western law."

The 'Free Exercise Clause' of our Constitution states that Congress cannot "prohibit the free exercise" of religious practices. The Supreme Court of the United States has consistently held, however, that the right to free exercise of religion is not absolute.

For example, in the 19th century, some of the members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints traditionally practiced polygamy, yet in Reynolds v. United States (1879), the Supreme Court upheld the criminal conviction of one of these members under a federal law banning polygamy. The Court reasoned that to do otherwise would set a precedent for a full range of religious beliefs including those as extreme as human sacrifice.

The court stated that "laws are made for the government of actions, and while they cannot interfere with mere religious belief and opinions, they may do it with practices." for example, if one were part of a religion that believed in vampirism, the first amendment would protect one's belief in vampirism, but not the practice.

From the Author:

In my mind hangs the idea of why, in 1801, the Muslim, who are Islamists, engaged in a war with the United States and it was contested by two Presidents, why now, our Judges are defending a consuetudinary foe that continues to decimate our people and attempting to defy our Constitution and Lifestyle?

I am no Constitutional Lawyer, but it makes common sense that we have to revise our Constitutional Laws and to be more Patriots, rather than continue to defend others in detriment of our people.

A BRUTAL ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY

Introduction

Several dozens of books are published about our Current Affairs; Most of them focusing on detailing activities by individual actors in the political arena.

I took a different approach until now, ignored by all writers, based on my History and Ancient Vedic Scriptures knowledge. I studied them for over fifty years, under my Spiritual Master's guidance, Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, also known as the Guru, that introduced the famous group "The Beatles" into the Vedic knowledge.

So, be prepared to read a philosophical approach, with fact-checked historical information and a personal opinion.

21 -An Unexpected Visitor: The Coronavirus shock.

Because of the COVID-19 Pandemic, that has affected the whole World and surely will radically change our lives, this book I am writing now, in self-imposed quarantine, is continuously evolving in concept, tenor, politics, social life, and people's lives around the World. We are living in a critical season, full of surprises.

Writing from Midtown, Manhattan, sadly, where 1/4 (25% of the United States victims infected with the virus reside), I see our streets desolate, which inspires a sense of destruction, forced loneliness caused by the latest import from China: The 'Coronavirus.' Without trying to suggest conspiracy theory, mostly blaming China's people, which I like and respect because of their many qualities through thousands of years of their unique culture, it is necessary to recognize the facts, or at least what we know.

At the same time, seeing the reality of some of the Chinese people's habits, especially eating everything that walks, crawls, swims, or flies, is bringing chills to my skin.

Watching some live videos of the "wet markets," where all kinds of animals are sold live, in cages with the sole purpose of killing them and become a meal, or already dead and chopped, it is frankly disgusting, at least to me, a vegetarian.

It is something we cannot call civilized in any way, and it is easy to understand how something like the COVID-19 was bred or created right there.

The other part of the story: How the virus was spread out to the World, causing the Pandemic we are suffering at present.

We can call it a mistake, a series of errors, an irresponsible act, or all of them. However, the intentionality is a question we will never know, and if it were some of it, people involved in it would deserve millions of years of going to hell. Of course, as said before, we will never know the truth.

Educated people recognize that a Communist system is capable of causing genocide or mass murdering. History tells that at least one hundred and thirty million people were killed by Communist regimes in the last one hundred and fifty years—no doubts about it.

So, could this be an attempt to weaken the rest of the free World by a biological attack? It is hard to believe, but also a possibility based on previous acts. I prefer to think otherwise.

However, doubt hangs in my mind like a horrific nightmare; The recall of a dream, like I, never had in my long life on this Earth.

I believe we will recover from these dreadful moments; our economy would indeed quickly rebound from the ashes. Especially the World will recognize our civilization is good for humanity, how we treat animals, even the ones people eat. (I am a Dairy-Vegetarian for 50 years), and refuse to criticize meat-eaters, simply because I am not qualified to judge anyone.

Nevertheless, there are limits. Our culture is being updated and upgraded by the day, and we prioritize our human nature to achieve better standards daily.

Western culture is not perfect, but we can't overlook our effort to improve it through the centuries.

Investors all over the Planet know that, and the comparison with the actual situation will, without a doubt, improve the USA ratings.

Our country's economy will bounce back. The World will compare the political systems, and the USA will be victorious once again. Now with more force, after people, Worldwide, realize that they can trust our political system, backed by an imperfect but ever-evolving and improving Market Capitalism. Unfortunately, some wrongly called "Democrats" are trying to change it, just for a reckless, insensitive "power grab obsession."

You just read the book's central point, revealing a hideous political plot never before devised in US politics. It is something that would make our Founding Fathers' hairs under the wigs stand up like sharp stilettos.

We should hope this act of God, sending us the present Pandemic, through Karma, personal, or group liability will be a teaching lesson for us at all levels of culture, education, and economy. We must learn the lesson and assign the guilt to the real perpetrators in a variety of responsibilities accordingly with the facts.

These are not times to play politics. I hope everybody understands it.

However, from the Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi to the minority Senate leader Chuck Schumer, including the rest of the Democrat Party members, is part of the nefarious plot to destroy President Trump and the United States of America as we know it. We have never seen anything like it in the History of our country.

Schumer had the nerve to say on National TV, regarding the "Run-Off" in the State of Georgia: "First we take Georgia, then we change America!" Who wants to change the most beautiful country on Earth?

The hatred Democrat Party members display against President Trump is out of this World, and it is like extracted from a horror science fiction movie.

Democrat lawmakers insist on charging against the President, lying, and creating obstacles to his job, trying to save the American people's lives. It is like it for the last four years.

24 -A Plot To Destroy The USA. As We Know It.

Although there is an in-depth research on every fact explained here, this book is about the author's evaluation and opinion, honest and maybe partisan; I am a "Liberal-Conservative."

However, not a lie is said in these pages. The reader could find some disagreements, but good faith has been my motto.

I know it sounds brutal, maybe unreal, but the facts confirm the existence of a plot to destroy the USA as we know it. It is real. We will discuss the actors, their ideology, intentions, and background (History is the most crucial part of the scheme.)

The partners are three groups: Postmodern Liberalism (the new identity assumed by the Democrat Party,) Socialism/Communism, and Radical Islam. Let's be clear that Postmodern Liberalism has hijacked the old Democrat Party, and it is in full command of it.

First of all:

The Liberal Movement, in my opinion, has mutated into what I call now: Postmodern Liberalism, with some exceptions of traditional Liberals who became pariahs inside the Party.

Throughout many years of evolution, the change occurred due to the last 2016 election, where the old traditional Democrat Party fell out of decisive leadership and collapsed.

The Liberals stepped on the gas and, taking advantage of the situation, pushed their agenda, entirely leaning to the left, dragging with it, most of the old traditional Democrat Party.

Bernie Sanders, once labeled as a dark, unattractive Socialist, acting in fact as Communist, took the idea to the American youngsters, mostly uneducated "students," desperately seeking "free stuff" and the giveaways abundantly offered by the old Communist fanatic. Sanders has no practical way to finance them without bankrupting our country.

Bernie curiously spent his honeymoon in the USSR, enamored by the "Revolution," that has stuck in his mind, and still is pushing with great conviction, despite that Socialism/Communism has failed every time a country applied it. Bernie got stuck in the 1960s.

However, the old career politician said in a recent Town Hall: The USSR has never been Socialist? He needs to unveil the USSR acronym: United Soviet Socialist Republics.

Recently, the Senator from Vermont sung praises to Fidel Castro and his Communist Cuban Revolution.

Postmodern Liberals also introduced the idea of seeking a convenient alliance with Islam, fighting a common enemy: The Conservatives in the GOP.

We will see the connotations of this coalition later in the chapters. Also, analyzing the discussion of irreconcilable Islamist differences with our Constitution and Lifestyle, and History tells the truth!

I carefully tried to avoid a personal negative opinion about Islam, preferring to expose facts, so that the readers could form their own opinion without my influence.

I am not an anti-Islamic person, although I disagree with the practices. I will explain the different forms of Islam later.

The new Postmodern Liberalism is a radical approach of the Liberalism we all knew and probably argued with but estimated viable in some cases. I consider myself a Liberal-Conservative, meaning that I study Liberal proposals, and accept some, rejecting others, nowadays it has mutated into a very different animal.

In many instances, something interesting came out of those discussions, enriching some aspects that moderately helped change our Society's traditions.

The newly proposed style implies a violent attempt to go to uncharted territories, where our Society's typical lifestyle is being breached, making many people feel uncomfortable and displeased with those modifications.

Democrats have entered a coalition integrated by The Democrat Party, Liberals, Academia, Mainstream Media, The Left, Washington Establishment, Hollywood Elite, Deep State, and the LGBTQ, which together became, in my opinion, the Postmodern Liberalism.

Unfortunately, they are pushing the most extreme anti-Conservative sexual oriented craze based on ignorance of History, science, and philosophy. As a result, Postmodern Liberalism hijacked the Democrat Party.

In an unfortunate attempt to challenge President Trump, the alliance is now defending issues like the MS-13 (praising them as similar to our grandparents arriving in the US, an absurd comparison made by Speaker Pelosi.

Democrats are promoting illegal immigration as a way to enroll new Democratic voters. They are instituting the Sanctuary States in Democratic Governed cities and states (protecting criminal illegal aliens.) They also want a borderless country, allowing immigrants from any land, including Radical Islamic terrorist places, to enter the US freely to acquire rights equal to the natural citizens immediately.

Not even the actual COVID-19 Pandemic slowed them down. Democrats want to increase taxes and undo the recent Trump Administration tax reform that had pumped the economy by the creation of new 7 million jobs, as well as other issues that, in the past, were condemned by the Democrat Party when it used to practice a mostly centrist ideology.

The existing Pandemic has not changed the Democratic politician's minds. They still don't care if the illegal aliens coming into our land are healthy or not.

Right after the 2016 election, they implemented a witch-hunt after Donald J. Trump, at the same time that the mainstream Media vowed, "The impeachment has begun," only 19 minutes after the Media released the 2016 election results.

Now, we just learned, through Inspector General Michael Horowitz, that during the Campaign, the FBI, under the Obama Administration led by James Comey, one hundred days before the election, placed a spy inside Trump's Campaign and maybe two or more. Stephan Halper, a US citizen, Cambridge University professor with residence in the UK, was one of them. The other "informant" remains unknown at this time. The placing of the Mole was inspired by "Code Name Crossfire Hurricane": "The Secret Origins of the Trump Investigation," as the New York Times recently published.

DOJ Sources affirmed Obama's Administration paid Professor Halper one million dollars through the US Department of Defense to collect information about Trump's Campaign and others.

Deep incursions in the Trump campaign affiliates led to several interviews at the Trump Tower with active members. President Trump denounced illegal surveillance early in March 2017.

At that time, FBI officials downplayed any claim of spying inside the Trump Tower.

Recently, in May 2018, former NSA James Clapper said on TV: "it is a good thing the FBI spied on the Trump campaign."

Officially, the FBI said the "informant" got in touch with the Campaign to protect the then-candidate from Russian spying inside the organization.

However, if the FBI were concerned with Mr. Trump's safety, the correct would have been to make him aware of such a situation and warning him of its perils.

By keeping the "surveillance" secret, the actions became "Spying" into a campaign opposed to the Governing Party.

Inspector General Michael E. Horowitz confirmed it in his recent report.

Although the information seems to have occurred years ago, it is worth remembering the events to keep the coherence of the actual "Coup D'etat" attempt.

Significantly, Clinton's Campaign was not "protected," in a similar way, while it was public that the Russians breached into the DNC's computers. It is also notable that the DNC decided to make their computers unavailable to the FBI's requests.

So many lies like we've never seen before in the FBI and the DOJ is a severe discredit to the Obama's Justice Department, which has held an apparently impeccable prestige until that date. Now, we know it is false.

President Trump won the 2016 election under the slogan "Make America Great Again," and many Campaign promises that he has been fulfilling so far despite the fierce Democratic politicians' opposition through the "Resist" movement.

Unfortunately, many of those conquers are ignored by the people's majority because the Mainstream Media hides the result from them. They only publish negative aspects of the Trump Administration.

The President is the target, and all the Democrat Party's power, means, and efforts are focused on reaching only one goal: Destroying Donald J. Trump and his Administration. Not only that but destroying the USA as we know it. They want to convert the USA into a European country model and eventually going Communist.

The failed Impeachment attempt by the House, dismissed by the Senate, is proof of the "hoax" attempted by Democrats.

They have abandoned on the path, a political platform that could have had eventually helped them to regain the House, Senate, and White House, their biggest dream and obsession since 2016.

At present, the GOP is gaining terrain after the Impeachment's failure.

Polls show the progress despite a frantic battle with the Mainstream Media and the Left, helped by the Radical Islamists now, present in the House of Representatives, known as "The Squad."

"A BRUTAL ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY" is a narrative reflecting the US's current social/political situation. Its chapters detail the devilish plot by the mentioned coalition, which defines the perils of the alliance; I call Postmodern Liberalism, menacing to destroy not only Donald J. Trump, but also the whole country and the Western Civilization.

That is precisely what Marx and Engels suggested in the Communist Manifesto of 1848, and Lenin reaffirmed in his Decalogue in 1913.

It is also what the Islamists have fixed in their minds since the seventh Century: The Earth's domination through a Worldwide Caliphate. So, they are ganging up against the President's plans to Make America Great Again! The World is watching in anxiety!

So, let's start with the details.

29 -The Democrat Party Started A Witch Hunt.

A witch-hunt initiated on November 9th, 2016, has slowed down a Congress that, lacking a GOP majority (in 2018, Democrats obtained control of the House), has prevented implementing the President's plan altogether. I took the liberty to rename the Movement that hijacked the Democrat Party as Postmodern Liberalism. Accordingly, the present development is an entirely new version of the old World's understanding of traditional Liberalism. I will get into details of why in the following chapters.

The alliance between several different groups, some of them vehemently opposed to Conservatism, is not surprising. The names have evolved through the times, in various fashions aligned with the World's actual regions.

The old phrase: "My enemy's enemy is my friend," is still valid.

The Left gathered together the entire Conservatives' traditional enemies inside the coalition we call Postmodern Liberalism.

They are all of a very different breed and hate President Trump and his supporters for various reasons. That is the common denominator, so they decide to unite to help each other.

29 -Some Background Information. Why The Vedas, now?

Since the beginning of the nineteenth century, the founders of the Quantum Mechanics: Nobel Prize winner, Laureate Niels Bohr (1885-1962) and Erwin Schrödinger (1887-1961), and later Werner Heisenberg (1901-1976), stated that "Quantum theory will not look ridiculous to people who have read 'Vedanta.'" (the conclusion of Vedic thought.)

Schroedinger went a little further, writing in his biographical work: "Vedanta teaches that consciousness is singular, all happenings are played out in one universal consciousness, and there is no multiplicity of selves."

The brightest mind of our times: Albert Einstein, acknowledged his regular reading of the Vedas, recognizing the absoluteness of Krishna, the Supreme Being.

Robert Oppenheimer (1904 – 1967) stated: "The Vedas are the greatest privilege of this century."

Strangely, the Vedic philosophy has remained apart from the main discussion; I ignore the reason.

However, because I have acquired a vast knowledge of the Vedic philosophy over fifty years of studies under an erudite teacher, I insist we must evaluate the present analysis. It is too valuable to dismiss it and the World's dire situation; I believe it requires going back to consultation basics.

I must admit that Vedic knowledge is not simple to extract by reading the Scriptures. However, once it is done, it is easy to understand, concrete, and straightforward.

The Vedic complexity, flowery language, the citations, personalities, demi-Gods, fantastic places, and a significant portion of metaphoric language make Vedic understanding quite intricate. However, once one recognizes and familiarizes with the writing style, it becomes passionately addicting and immensely educating.

I was lucky enough to be introduced to Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, and most importantly, his philosophical work, wisdom, and kindness. Prabhupada is a Worldwide recognized authority in Vedic knowledge.

After engaging in servicing the Supreme Personality of God, Lord Krishna, he accepted me as his disciple, which changed my life entirely and forever.

So, the introduction to consciousness was the key that allowed me to enter another dimension: The Spiritual World.

However, nowadays, a particular phenomenon is dominating our Society: the most significant sociopolitical division ever is driving our lives insane, and causing a human disrupting feeling, as never occurred before.

The antagonism between the mutating Liberal ideologies, which I call now the Postmodern Liberalism, and the Conservative Movement, is dangerously increasing the hostility at present times, reaching the hatred zone.

Conservative thinkers are no longer allowed to speak at most Universities, mostly in control of the Postmodern Liberals. They violently attack them consistently.

So, my thoughts cannot get away from the current times, which significantly dominates the scene and keeps me focused on what is happening at present. I hope I do not become repetitive in excess, although I believe the repetition of the issues helps me understand, as Prabhupada used to say.

The drug culture is the favorite weapon the Western culture's enemies are using, trying to destroy it, and the extreme sexual liberation completes the scene to real chaos. China flooding our streets with opioids, Fentanyl, and other heavy drugs is an example.

They know the spiritual weakness that prosperity brings to people, and Western Society has fallen into the trap.

The providers are well-identified in the political Left, Islam, and the totalitarian left-wing. The mafia runs the drug distribution ring, a highly controversial bunch. Most of the heavy drugs keep coming from China and Mexico; Sometimes, in triangulation with other countries.

The materially successful fools and the losers are their clients; The LGBTQ helps. It is a wide variety of political styles incompatible between them with a common denominator; the hatred for Trump and his supporters.

I would like to establish right here that my opinion about the LGBTQ is not homophobic at all. As a Jazz Dance student for many years, and a successful professional musician, I shared space and relationships with Gay people, having a deep camaraderie and many friendships. I believe people should be free to choose the way they want to live and be respected. However, as they have the right to choose, I also reserve my right to a dissenting opinion, something that, at this time, due to 'political correctness' is difficult to express.

I consider the LGBTQ a political arm of the people they affirm to defend. Nevertheless, they have become highly demanding and pushing their lifestyle, which transgresses many' moral principles.

Morals have been, and I hope it continues to be, the pillar of a healthy society that has maintained the World's population growth and evolution. The contrary is not optimum and is in strong opposition to the excessive liberties the Postmodern Liberals want to push down our throats.

Western Civilization women, caught up by their economic success, restrict the newborn, avoiding dividing the cake into smaller pieces. In the Islamic faith, baby's production is at full speed ahead. Their motto:

"In the end, Islam will prevail because our women bear more children than any other group."

I remind you that the Koran's primary purpose is conquering the World to be an Islamic Caliphate.

The City of London is an example. For the first time in History, the original White population is in the minority. The Islamist community on the rise as crime is also on the increase overlooked by Muslim Mayor Sadiq Khan.

Western Civilization's people, by restricting the newborn, are undermining the defenses against the all-time enemies.

Recently, Alexandra Ocasio Cortez, the Squad Leader, has vowed and counseled women to avoid having any newborn; A controversial, anti-human statement.

Postmodern Liberals insist on making the modern World a genderless society. An ignorant option! Something scientifically impossible where they only seem to care about the "feelings." They disregard reality and science.

While this is happening, their allies are frantically working to take advantage of the system's weakening.

But, who are the opponents of Western Civilization?

A coalition has been formed by Postmodern Liberals (including the LGBTQ), Democratic Party, Mainstream Media, Communists, Socialists, Anarchists, Fascists, Nazis, and the odd addition of Islamist, unequivocally opposed to the rest.

As said before, I call the group Postmodern Liberalism, but inevitably bound to the new edition of CCP's China, including their State Capitalism. The High-Tech executives lead them, many of them subscribed to the LGBTQ, as always looking for social recognition. It is no longer enough the social tolerance to their questionable public behavior.

Their aggressiveness is evident, helping up with millions of dollars Pete Buttigieg's failed Campaign, which was strongly backed by the Mainstream Media and Silicon Valley's executives. Pete's Campaign failed, but surely will be rewarded with a substantial bone on the eventual new Administration if Biden is elected. He could be named US Ambassador in Beijing; A terrible mistake.

Now, people, especially conservatives, are required to change their minds and applaud their increasingly disruptive public lifestyle and the shift into an impulsive liberality that is degrading Society based on morals as we know it.

It seems the goal might be a kind of modern "Sodom and Gomorrah." They actively and violently ignore the rights of Conservatives to differ.

Remembering my youth in South America, I could recall many clashes with the prior generations. Fortunately, my dear parents were the kind of individuals who always took the cultural changes naturally, understanding or trying to understand the young people's need for those changes.

With practically a lack of factual information, South-American youngsters tried to copy the changes generated by another entirely different culture, coming from the USA and Europe.

Unfortunately, the Vedic knowledge was absent from our region at that time.

South-American countries never suffered the horrors of wars like the US or Europe.

The only information received at the time of the World Wars, Korean War and others, was only acquired by watching the newsreels showing previews before the theaters' feature film.

The information was reduced to a couple of minutes and always sided with the US Government.

Hollywood was pro-Government at that time, although in the 1930s, the Hollywood elite had a weird closeness to the Nazis. (The Hollywood connection.) I will get into some details in a later chapter.

The radio shows gave more detailed information about the World's developments. Books delivered the results of those experiences and changes in a more comprehensive and sophisticated way, but of course, with some time delay because of the news distribution's physical nature.

Since my youth, I have always had a sincere eagerness to know more about life, the Universes, and the human presence on Earth.

My craving to know about spiritual being came later in my life, mainly because, at the time, thinking outside the box presented some fear to enter an uncertain mind status.

Religion had a part of this concern. I always thought that Christianity (Catholicism at that time) had considerable control over the creation issues while reading the Bible was not encouraged.

As a teen, I remember asking some priests why we would not read the Bible more often. The answers indicated that the leadership (La Curia) was concerned that the filigrees would misunderstand the Bible writings, or it could open a can of worms by generating unwanted questions, challenging to be evacuated.

Besides, there was almost no information about the Vedas or the Eastern culture and much less about Islam. Later in my life, I had the opportunity to study in detail, mainly related to the Vedas.

However, some students were interested in History, especially the Barbary Wars around the end of the 17th Century and beginning of the 18th Century, when Muslims had a common practice of kidnapping US ships, holding passengers and crews for ransom, and selling them as slaves.

These barbaric practices and the US ships' taxes drained the US economy on 10% of the Gross National Product for some time.

Those years were undoubtedly a dark period. In South America was no different.

For some reason, the teachers, philosophers, and other educators felt that people were coming from the dark ages and unable to understand reality at sight.

Except for certain elites in Europe and the US, the knowledge was slowly starting to be available to the average folks.

Of course, a few avid readers seeking information of all kinds were able to form a nucleus or an elite of intellectuals that were secretively gathering on exclusive joints, as Coffee shops, Jazz clubs, or reading clubs, quite tricky to access without an insider's introduction.

Somehow, through my musician's skills, a brief activity in the Independent theater, and in general, by hanging out with older people, I kept an increasing expansion of my knowledge.

Music has always been a mind opener. The maths in it, which I discovered later in life, notably when the digital era unveiled the equations in the musical phrases and even in the sound vibrations, opened an incredible parallel World that earlier in my youth I could not precisely detect. I could've only felt it.

The vast ocean of sounds, although defined as Harmony, Melody, and Rhythm, contains an endless wave of alternatives that make it a Science, including Physics, Mathematics, Geometry, and other aspects of Science and Philosophy.

Discovering the algorithms in the music, already established by Pythagoras and revealed to some privileged musicians at the time, was little by little uncovered and made available to others through different means. The latest one, developing digital music, is based on what the Genius of Pythagoras masterfully designed centuries ago.

That knowledge was made available within the timed development of science, which today our scientists manage to make public after years of intense work.

When one thinks of those incredible minds, it only recognizes that they were advanced souls responsible for the future's education. If anybody doubts God's existence, they must surrender to the Creator's idea before these facts.

However, I do not mean "religion," but science, the science of God's creation, something very different from religion, as it is commonly known.

We could go back and pay attention to the thinkers, poets, sadhus, and philosophers who helped write the Vedic Scriptures on the East and the Greek documents like the New Testament, the Septuagint, the Greek Old Testament, and the Torah translation.

It is hard to imagine those days, where human life had a small value, regarded as disposable. When ignorance dominated the scene, and knowledge was a privilege enjoyed by a few, born in wealthy families or protected by patrons or sponsors of the arts and sciences.

Gaius Cilnius Maecenas, a wealthy poet and patron of the Roman Empire artists, started a trend followed by many other wealthy people, art lovers, sponsoring and protecting many developing new artistic talent.

But the particular knowledge that some prophets, thinkers, philosophers, and poets made available through the ancient scriptures is a significant treasure that today continues to be enjoyed, enlightening our lives.

Modern scientists are beginning to acknowledge those individuals that, illuminated by the Creator, poured their vast knowledge into those documents.

However, we must lament the loss of a significant part of that legacy, destroyed by barbarians and war incidents or the loss of almost the entire life of Nicola Tesla, a genius, vilified and ignored because he wanted people to be the recipient of his inventions for free.

Tesla did not want the military to use his knowledge to jeopardize the Planet, and others, who enjoyed the credit without deserving it, later pilfered many of his designs.

Also unfortunate is the absence of data about Pythagoras, whose life was a source of fantastic knowledge in music, sciences, and philosophy.

It was difficult for me, starting writing this book for a few reasons.

I thought writing about my experiences could trigger a dangerous collision between ego and humbleness. After consulting with many of my friends, practically all of them counseled me to go ahead and not only to do it but also to write it in the Spanish Language. As some said, you have acquired a vast experience in life and must tell it, just because numerous people would like to read about it. It humbled me.

I believe people are inclined to read about real issues.

I usually do not explain myself and, overall, do not apologize for my statements.

So, please take these paragraphs as lightly as you can, because, in the end, I am a little shy, although I must overcome that feeling to tell you about some interesting issues.

I intend to inform you and entertain you, at least, and keep you updated about the facts, as I know them.

So, be prepared to read some opinionated ideas, especially in politics.

These times are heavily politically charged, and remaining impartial is almost impossible, especially when a declared Liberal-Conservative.

Nevertheless, I will try to keep separate the material life from my spiritual self.

Although I have a conservative base, I am pro-changes, making me a hybrid kind of Liberal-Conservative, a unique breed.

Looking at the word Liberal in the Oxford Dictionary: "Willing to respect or accept behavior or opinions different from one's own; open to new ideas." I could resume it on "Being open-minded to changes."

Furthermore, the Postmodern Liberal Movement in America today is like a bulldozer that advances, attempting to destroy every trace of traditional behavior. They try to replace it with controversial thoughts and practices, ignoring many natural laws and scientific facts, favoring feelings over realities. They are blurring the lines.

Due to Society's status nowadays, it is quite tricky to avoid current issues while having an opinion about them.

So, I hope the reader will find my writing style exciting and will be able to see the point through the clouds.

That is why I advise you to be prepared for a controversial mix between past, present, and future, with a personal opinion, that you might love or hate, but I hope you will never find dull.

38 -The Danger Ahead.

The Postmodern Liberal Movement is already causing damages, and a Civil War is plausible. The controversial result of the 2020 election, evidently tainted by stories of fraud, grossly mismanagement, irregularities, including unconstitutional changes by State Courts, usurping Legislative rulings.

The current times are among the most important since the creation of our Nation. The external political forces, Democrats are attempting to operate a radical change, which I am sure most Americans do not desire. Many ignore the dreadful consequences.

Communism, a project coming from the sick mind of Karl Marx and Fredrich Engel, initially tried in the old USSR, materialized its in-roads to the USA through the Cuban Revolution. However, the Soviets opened up a collateral project in my birth country Uruguay. So, I was a witness to such development in my hometown. I will bring details in further chapters.

The United States has been mostly a conservative bastion through religious thought. However, a different "religion" is pounding at our doors, menacing our standards, and attempting to dominate us by force. They've been doing it in the East for 1400 years. Now the invasion is in motion, right at our doors. Islam keeps on the move, thru the Radical Wing led by Iran with increasing force, now invited by the Postmodern Liberals, to be part of the coalition to destroy our President and our Nation, as we know it.

Some challenging times lie ahead, and we need to choose the right path while fighting against the evil forces to keep a necessary balance.

So, I decided to keep comparing the present with the past and a vision of the future. I hope to have made the right choice.

You will judge it.

However, Coronavirus's unannounced intrusion has taken our people and the World's population by surprise. The Pandemic is forcing us more dramatically than any previous war, to come to a temporary stop that is changing already our lifestyle like we never imagined, and who knows the extent of the changes in the future.

To begin with it, no longer our usual salutation kissing, embracing, fist slapping, high-five, fist-bumping, and similar will be routine in the future, or at least for some time. Instead, the usual Eastern-Asian bow-down, hands together, or head bowing will probably be the new norm. Be ready for a drastic change.

Democrats desperately want a permanent lockdown to blame President Trump for the health calamity, as well as the economic disaster.

They have the most flawed Presidential candidate possible, a man who does not remember what he ate for breakfast and stuttering, most of the time incoherent, confusing names and situations. A recent one, after named a cabinet member, Xavier Becerra, two hours later, Joe mispronounced Becerra's name, horribly, undecipherable. That is why his campaign directors limited his air time from his basement to seven minutes, developed a virtual campaign to make-up for the candidate's handicap. Of course, they counted on the valuable Mainstream Media's partnership, that sweeps under the rug any embarrassing or compromising issue.

Meanwhile, the Blue States Governors are doing their part, keeping their States closed or limiting the citizens' liberties.

One of their biggest mistakes is to keep schools closed until next year.

They are not thinking wisely!

Prologue

41 -No One Saw It Coming.

The American People never considered the possibility of a threat like the present one. Moreover, the existence of an internal political force like the Democrat Party, to turn against our Constitution, was never a serious chance it could happen, until now.

Democrats have always been leaning to the left, middle of the political road option, at least until they lost the 2016 election.

Starting a little before that, when Bernie Sanders, an old Communist militant, a fan of the former USSR, who spent his "honeymoon," of all places, in USSR's Moscow, made a bid to get the Presidential nomination.

We all know the end of that contest, so I will avoid repeating the events. The Democrat's puppeteers knew Sanders wouldn't make it thru the end, manipulated results, and chose the manageable Joe Biden.

After Donald J. Trump won the Presidency in 2016, Democrats went berserk, and derangement syndrome developed rapidly and out of control.

Unlike previous elections, the 2020 campaign started the day after learning that the new President was not a Democrat.

However, Sanders' ideology was kept in the shadow, with the promise that if Biden were successful, the new Administration would reward Bernie's extreme dreams.

42 –The Bernie Sanders Dream.

Bernie's giveaways to the potential voters, which in 2016 were incredibly generous, consistent with a Socialist/Communist program, was cheered by the youth during the primaries. Still, not enough voters accompanied Sanders through the end.

Besides, as we know, there were some dirty tricks from the DNC, like the "super-delegates," that forced Hillary to be the nominee.

Bernie didn't stop working on his platform, and he thought that by adding the new voters in 2020, with some adjustments, he could have another chance to be the nominee and face President Trump in November.

He didn't stop working on his platform; with the help of the newly elected Alexandria Ocasio Cortez, who developed what is called the "Green New Deal," put together an insane Communist platform. He rebranded him and his movement as "Democratic Socialism." In my opinion, a controversy since Socialism is not democratic, per se.

His new label: "Democratic Socialism," caught momentum, and immediately most youngsters, mainly students, began a love affair with the old Socialist, acting like a Communist.

Sander's giveaways were precisely what the uneducated youth wanted. Forgiving student loans, free tuition, free Healthcare even for illegals, food stamps, and free housing, free this, free that; the old career politician offered perks that Marx and Engels never mentioned in their Communist Manifesto.

It was an excess of giveaways, like not the most prominent demagogue in history ever offered in an electoral campaign.

Communism is not a giving philosophy. On the contrary, people suppose to work for the Government and dedicate their lives to the one Party system, only rewarded with meager pay to keep them alive merely. No social or health benefits, like in the USA.

Bernie, counting on the economic bonanza created by Donald J. Trump, with record employment, over 3% GDP, and the lowest corporate taxes ever, saw an opportunity to spend big money. The Trump tax-cuts triggered the repatriation of capital and the opening of new factories in the USA. So, Bernie was ready to dilapidate that wealth to achieve his Communist dreams; he treasured for decades.

Because his numbers were better than the other twenty-some pre-candidates, the DNC saw an opportunity to beat Trump in 2020.

They will deal with Bernie's Communist dreams at a later date.

What they needed at the moment was momentum, and they thought Sanders could provide it.

The Ultra-Liberals began supporting the lefty independent, running under the Democrat's umbrella.

Meanwhile, with the powerful help of the Mainstream Media, they threw the kitchen sink at the President and starting with the "Russian Collusion," which they extended for almost three years, in an appalling Mueller's investigation.

In the end, Bob Mueller's probe proved to be only a hoax.

Democrat politicians alternated with various false sexual accusations against Trump, featuring all kinds of lies, slander, and fake news, while we reached the Democratic primaries time.

Additionally, we recall that 19 hours after the 2016 election, The Washington Post published a headline saying: "The impeachment has begun." A significant promise that kept the Media and Democrats looking to find a motive for such impeachment.

Meanwhile, Adam Schiff, and Jerry Nadler, in the background, were furiously preparing the impeachment. The scenario was ready, and they only needed the main ingredient: A motive.

Finally, they grabbed the famous phone conversation between Donald Trump and the Ukrainian President, and bingo! They began to put together the articles of impeachment. In January of 2020, while in the Democrat's mind, the only thing was the impeachment, a tiny virus entered the scene, mostly unnoticed and, of course, far less important to Democrats than to impeach the President, their most treasured dream.

In jeopardy by the Democrat's plans, Trump learned the bad news coming from China and immediately, on January 31, declared a National Emergency and banned travel to and from China, right in the middle of his worse nightmare: An Impeachment.

Finally, after a three-ring Circus, the Senate acquitted Trump on February 5.

On February 24, Speaker Pelosi appeared on TV on a street event in Chinatown, San Francisco, inviting people to go out on the streets to celebrate the Lunar Chinese New Year and show Chinese people that everything was calm and healthy.

Nancy said nothing to fear on TV, embracing people at the parade without a Mask or other precautions.

On March 12, additionally, Trump banned travel between the US and 26 European countries.

It is hard to understand why Democrats claim that Trump started to act too late against the COVID-19.

Meanwhile, the Coronavirus coming from Wuhan, China, showed the first victims, increasing by the hundreds daily, and we all know the rest because it became a Pandemic and the worse nightmare to our country and the World.

44 –A Difference Between Blue And Red States.

While in January 2020, Democrats and the MSM were busily occupying 98 % of their time trying to nail Trump with the Impeachment, Dr. Fauci declared that he thought the Coronavirus was not that important. Despite that declaration, Trump had a brilliant idea to enact National Emergency, stop traveling with China, and then extend Europe's measure. That decision saved thousands of lives.

Despite that intelligent move, Democrats and the MSM are continuously lying, saying that "Trump delayed the action against the virus for too long.

We must understand the COVID-19 is a new strain, and not even the expert virologists of the World know much about it. The World knew no cure, no vaccine, or treatment at that time, and while around the World, there was a frantic activity trying to find a remedy, there were only minor developments to help us. Finally, thru Operation Warp Speed, Trump fathered the "Trump Vaccine."

Also, the Blue States were unprepared for a Pandemic. While they wasted taxpayer's money giving away billions to the Union's Pension Funds, and wasting millions on stupid investments as Gov. Cuomo's did in New York State.

Since taking office in 2011, Gov. Cuomo has consumed more than $10 billion in public funding and tax breaks in the name of economic development; All of the investments significant failures.

However, none of the States under the Democrat's Government did foresee Health problems and left supplies and equipment to empty, so there was nothing when the Trump Administration needed them badly. No Ventilators, an expensive machine, no emergency supplies, nothing. So they falsely blamed Trump for the Governor's lack of foresight.

Fortunately, with the help of the 1973 War Powers Resolution, the Trump Administration got the assistance of many industries and Labs. They quickly acted to manufacture equipment and supplies to face the health crisis.

In the beginning, Gov. Cuomo demanded from the Trump Administration 40,000 ventilators; a quantity later found inaccurate and excessive.

The Federal Government never failed to supply a ventilator to any patient in need of it in the whole country.

Ventilators' existence is now in excess, and the Trump Administration is helping various countries in need of expensive and sophisticated equipment.

Democrats overlooked Cuomo's administration failures, and his co-partner, the worse Mayor of all times: Bill De Blasio, both mishandling the Pandemic, which in New York State is the largest in the country.

Cuomo made a big mistake ordering Nursing homes to accept elderly infected with the Coronavirus, putting in danger thousands of older adults in healthy condition living in those facilities, instead of utilizing the Ship Hospital that Trump made available to him. Over 7,000 seniors died as a consequence of Cuomo's mistake.

Also, the 2,900-bed hospital the Military Engineers built in the Javit's Center, and other facilities the President fulfilled after Cuomo called on President Donald Trump to approve the construction of 4,000 additional hospital beds across the city, have not been used suitably.

A terrible move, politically detrimental, will haunt the Governor all his life.

Finally, Trump recalled the Hospital Ship USNS Comfort, which was not used by the Governor's team.

46 –A Brief Review.

In Chapter 1, I will be detailing some of the issues that brought me to many conclusions and defined the course of the events trying to change our country to something that our Founding Fathers did not want.

Although the Founders did not know Communism, Totalitarianism, Authoritarianism, Despotism, Cruelty, and other terms alike were known; They were born with humanity.

Communism, a political philosophy developed in the 18th Century, adopted most of them and exercised them politically, producing a hideous form of Government that deprives people of the main reasons we are born in this World. Freedom, free speech, liberty, and human rights, especially the pursuit of happiness.

Karl Marx and Fredrich Engels were Atheists, totally materialists, and ignorant of high philosophical principles, especially of Consciousness, the element which links the human body and the soul.

In my opinion, that disavows anybody to govern a country, what to say about ruling the World, as they pretend.

Of course, Authoritarianism and Theology, featured in Islam, are embedded in their beliefs since the seven Century and practiced with cruelty until nowadays by Radical Islam.

A savage understanding of human life punishes violators of Islamic religious rules sometimes with death is despicable behavior, even when the violation is against God's rulings, as they affirm.

Also, the way they treat women as second or third class citizens considered men's property, and sexual or servitude objects is a despicable practice.

Despite that, Communism and Islam are incompatible since the first is Atheist. At the same time, the latter is based on God's belief. Our Democrat Party found a similar goal in both philosophies: They both hate Democracy. In this particular case, they also hate Donald J. Trump because he is a Liberal-Conservative and against Totalitarianism and Authoritarianism.

But the strangest case is that the US Democrat Party renegades even of its name. They are going against centuries of history and many personalities that constructed a genuine Democratic organization of prestige in the USA. They are now siding with Communism and Socialism after having a commercial experience with Communist China that enriched several of its members.

They are now aligning with the Chinese Government to exploit the Asian laborers and farm-workers to provide cheap craft to the Billionaires owners of factories and High-Tech corporations doing business with the Communist, now ruling the Asian giant.

Based on the belief that "My enemy's enemy is my friend," the three of them, Socialism/Communism, Islam, and the US Democrat Party, are engaged in a kind of partnership, which focuses on destroying President Trump and the United States of America, as we know it.

Their plans are obvious, and although all the three groups want exclusive domination of our country, two of them will not stop at that because they want the World's absolute power, and they will not stop at anything less than that.

That is the sad situation with our country today, in the middle of the Coronavirus Pandemic. Blue governments are experimenting with suppressing many rights and putting in practice some of the bans in the insane "Green New Deal."

Also, a self-imposed, and many times State Governments quarantine makes our Cities and Towns look empty, desolate, and helpless.

Democrats poisoned the most critical election of our lifetime with manipulations; They well-planned chaos, confusion, and fraudulent voting. They certainly succeeded.

Democracy, mainly Constitutional Democracy, we must protect by defending the written Constitution and preventing modern lawyers from changing its articles. They are invoking the false pretext that our Charter is a "Living Constitution" and therefore must change according to with extreme Liberals' changing wishes; I call them now "Postmodern Liberals."

The fight is on, the armies are already engaged in a brutal battle, and the mixture of philosophies practiced by the three rogue groups trying to destroy our country, the most successful Constitutional Democracy in the World's history.

A BRUTAL ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY

CHAPTER 1

49-The Election That Changed The World.

49-The Alliance.

The 2016 US election was not an ordinary electoral act. The consequences have been unpredictable, shocking, and devastating for some people while promising for others. Starting with Hillary Clinton, Bill Clinton, Barak Obama, and the rest of the Democrat Party, but much worse for the Liberal community.

It created: "The Trump Derangement Syndrome."

In a general panorama, the entire political scenario changed. Hillary Clinton turned to the left more than any other Democratic candidate before her. Still, the new leadership went so far to the Left that it encountered Fascism, Communism, and authoritarianism at its best.

We all know and experienced during the campaign; a much more critical political factor developed and helped make the changes even greater.

The Liberal Movement in the Democrat Party re-defined part of the leftist philosophy, adding a totalitarian fascist denomination. I now call them Postmodern Liberalism,

They refuse to admit it, although their behavior confirms it.

Democrats made a grave mistake not condemning the totalitarian practices of Black lives matter and Antifa. They display a violent activity. On the contrary, Democrats officialized their assistance and made it an intrinsic part of their violent arm.

After the catastrophic defeat of November 8, 2016, Postmodern Liberals practically seized power in the DNC. They forced its members, Congress-people, and their ideology, pushing them to a new frontier, adopting modern Liberalism with different content, mostly totalitarian.

BLM's now iconic phrase: Protesters in a Black Lives Matter march held outside the Minnesota State Fair over the weekend were captured on video yelling "pigs in a blanket, fry 'em like bacon," a statement that people viewed as targeting police officers.

Democrats didn't waste the opportunity to use the protesters as a valuable asset. They kept them unofficial, but as the central part of an illegal operation that rapidly acquired popular support in a population's sector. Postmodern Liberals knew that a part of the Black population would support a bid to provide them with a loud and violent help, especially to some of the unemployed, low income, and illegals.

So, BLM became a kind of "folk-hero," false defenders of the needy, in reality, a growing domestic terrorist organization servicing the Postmodern Liberalism that hijacked the Old Democrat Party. They received hundreds of millions of dollars in donations, from the poor to the Billionaires owning High-Tech corporations.

Almost immediately after knowing the BLM popular success, another, even a more violent group, appeared on the scene, this time hiding its roots. Marxist trained also, its members showed sophisticated techniques, especially torching police cars, Federal buildings, and small businesses. Curiously, they did not touch any Mosques or Islamic Centers, or business.

Both groups began to show on the streets, perfectly coordinated. BLM initiated the "protests," and immediately, Antifa followed up, bringing weapons, fireworks, and other disturbance elements, that distribute them among the protesters.

They installed chaos under the Democrat Party leader's approval and encouragement. The Media labeled them: Peaceful protesters—a mockery of reality.

Each one of the Democratic Party members ignores the traditional DNC platform. They devoted their full time to resist the Trump Administration, the Republican Party, and the Conservative Movement.

Rapidly, Democrats planned their actions so well that the GOP should envy and learn from their techniques.

I do not need to address the harmful influence of Socialism and Communism throughout the world.

Latin Americans reading this book, especially, know the scope of these totalitarian ideologies, much better than the ordinary American citizen.

In America's Southern Hemisphere, they study the World's history in greater depth than in the USA. The experienced it on the flesh, with many Socialist and Communist regimes practically destroying countries' economies recently, has been devastating for Hispanic citizens. Concluding the case: They say that 'whoever burns with milk when he/she sees a cow, cries.'

After November 8, 2016, people began to separate some friends and families to argue and distancing from each other.

People changed their preferences and stopped talking to old neighbors. A whole series of regrettable issues came between the families, the acquaintances, and friendships in the country, and everything changed due to political discrepancies. The trend, rather than being an occasional fad, continues to grow with unfortunate proportions. The USA population is divided like never before. Democrats are trying to blame President Trump, but it is evident, Democrat leaders are to blame. They wanted the American people to feel uncomfortable, miserable, and desperately in need of a change. They lied, and lied, inventing stories against President Trump, and during four years, they sang the same tune blaming him for everything.

Never before in history, a President was so disrespected and viciously attacked every single day.

After the 2016 election, we entered a virtual civil war right after an election in which the country changes the Government through the people's vote. The decision of the Electoral College, according to the words of our Constitution, elects a President.

The media has a large part of the responsibility for social dislocation.

Mainstream "journalists," converted into Democratic Partisans, immediately shoveled fuel into the fire seeking power, creating the greatest disaster of all times, even worse than the racial hatred of a few years ago.

At first, Democrats were desperately looking for errors in the counting, irregularities in handling paperwork, and even some accusations of fraud by the Republican Party, for months occupied the news and the 'talk of the town.'

Everything became irrelevant, except for the discussion and arguments about the recent 2016 election.

Social life, conversations at work, near the water cooler, and even at the street level; people stopped talking about the electoral act's speculations.

As the weeks passed by and the Electoral College pronounced the final results electing Donald J. Trump as the 45th President of the United States, he assumed power on January 20, 2017.

Although many of us thought that the waters were calming down and the country would be taking its regular course, it did not.

Postmodern Liberals, who at that time had already taken all aspects of the leadership in the Democrat Party, continued to exert even more pressure, leaning more and more to the Left and adding support from other groups to their already declared "Resist" movement.

Democrats knew they needed something new to recover the Government. The first step was to take the House of Representatives back.

They exploited the fact that Trump was new and inexperienced in government affairs and organization.

They also took advantage that he brought many new people to his Administration. Those newcomers made many mistakes, especially trying to change the President's programs, which ended in many replacements and criticism from the Media, self-declared Democrat's partisans. Some GOP Senators like Mitt Romney, John McCain, and others started a movement called "Never-Trumpers," one of the causes that helped Democrats taking the House of Representatives in 2018.

The Hollywood elite also entered the rebellion. Liberals, naturally led by former President Barack Obama, Hillary Clinton, Bill Clinton, and senators such as Mark Warner, Nancy Pelosi, Chuck Schumer, and celebrities such as Oprah Winfrey, Robert DeNiro, David Axelrod, Harry Reid, Judge Sonia Sotomayor, ex-Vice President Joseph Biden, showed their massive support.

The Media and other personalities of our political and social life, especially in California and New York, also fully entered the "Resist" movement.

Almost instantly, a whole opposite front to the newly elected President made its physical presence on the scene, led by the Black Lives Matter and fascist group "Antifa." Democrats' plans materialized. The entire country became a battlefield, relegating essential issues such as economics, employment, medical care, international relations, and other vital aspects of our lives to a second place. All efforts of Postmodern Liberals focused on consolidating the new movement, opposed and determined to derail the Presidency of Donald J. Trump.

Not even North Korean Kim Jong Un's daring attempts to initiate a nuclear war distracted Democrats from continuing the revolt against President Trump.

The Democrat Party made the "resistance movement" its only motive to exist and Impeachment the principal tool to unseat Trump and preventing him from being re-elected.

Democrat leadership decided Impeachment, only 19 minutes after knowing the 2016 election results. Then, they began to look for a motive.

They tried a few; The Russian Collusion, Derangement, unfit to be President, sexual false accusations, and many others, including the recent Impeachment failure, an obvious hoax.

The alliances did not stop there. The Postmodern Liberal Movement continued its support search and soon formed a strange bond with Islam. The well-known prominent supporters of terrorist organizations such as Al-Qaida, ISIS, Hezbollah, Al-Nusrah, Hamas, and dozens more, led by the Iranian clerics in power, have assumed the entire Radical Islam leadership. They have many activists in our country, even in the House of Representatives.

Despite the vast difference in their values and support issues, both sides are US conservatives' enemies. They decided to fight together. Although, if they might succeed in the end, Islam will inevitably overwhelm the Liberals by numbers and, of course, by the experience of 1400 years fighting for its radical and totalitarian cause. They will wait; no rush. They've been waiting and acting as they were allowed for centuries.

Remember that in our World, there is no force more potent than religion, and the fanaticism of Islam exceeds the average.

Armed with the rant of "Climate Change," an exaggerated view of the catastrophes that the World has witnessed for centuries, the fight began. The climate issue, although significant, is not the most important for the survival of our country.

As a matter of fact, in a recent poll by the Pew Institute, the issue "Climate Change" came in 18th place. Not a preferred subject among voters.

The search for clean energy and caring for the environment are tasks that we must closely watch. We must protect it carefully but without exaggeration. Still, we must make sure that other countries do not take advantage of us using regulations that could negatively affect our lives.

President Trump withdrew from the Paris Accord because other countries were abusing the United States that had, at the time, stricter regulations for us, but allow other countries to have better deals. The Agreement was detrimental to our economic development and favored other countries that follow the US from afar in the environment's care. China, India, and other countries are known as more significant environmental polluters; however, considered by the Paris accord as "developing countries?".

Let's face it. If the whole world does not take care of the environment simultaneously, it's irrelevant to sacrifice our people with regulations that others won't follow.

In any case, the USA holds the World's lead concerning conservation, preservation, clean air, and care of the environment.

After serious irregularities, President Trump fired FBI Director James Comey, which prompted a special prosecutor, Robert Mueller, with ample power to investigate the alleged Russian collusion. A definite hoax based on an apocryphal document named Crossfire Hurricane.

The three and a half years investigation did not find any "Collusion with the Russians." Still, on the contrary, Mueller continued looking for "a crime," any crime that ever existed on the part of the Republican Party or the Trump campaign. He did not find any.

Simultaneously, the liberals added the infamous "Collusion with Russia," a hoax that, after two years, was exhaustively scrutinized by the Special Counsel Robert Mueller and 19 Liberal Lawyers helping him, never showed any proof of being real. No collusion, no obstruction was in the report written by Mueller.

However, DOJ investigators indicate that the real collusion may have been between the Russians, the DNC, and Hillary Clinton. So, things have become murky in the Democratic Party now commanded by the Postmodern Liberal Movement.

Besides, Attorney General Bill Barr has appointed a special investigator, US Attorney John Durham, to look into the start of the FISA Court dealings, a criminal investigation. Unfortunately, despite the judicial and political attributions, the Durham process has been a timid attempt to uncover the dirt and still hanging in limbo. After everybody assuming that Durham would release the report before the 2020 election, he did not.

Senator Lindsey Graham is looking to initiate an inquiry of the Democrats with the Russians and the FISA affair.

Recently, A.G. Bill Barr made Durham a Special Counsel, which will be practically impossible to fire by the new Biden appointee as Attorney General, eventually.

The Media intervention has been and continues to be a significant force in the 2016 post-election struggle, has no signs of changing after the 2020 election. The hatred poured out by liberal journalists; we have never seen before.

Except for Fox News, the Media devotes practically 97% of their time to deprecating the Trump Government's actions or ideas and significantly tarnish the President's image. The opposition became a source of personal hatred against Mr. Trump, his family, and his team. Democrats kept attacking and insulting the President supporters in an actual witch-hunt that persecuted the MAGA followers, even attacking them inside restaurants, gas stations, grocery stores, and the streets. The personal hostility shown by some of the journalists siding with the Postmodern Liberal Movement turned unhealthy, unreal, making no sense. It is an unfair campaign by the mainstream media and Democrats that the President has named "Fake News."

Washington's Establishment hates the changes that President Trump had in mind. Even some Republican Party senators in the "Never-Trumpers," and some Congress-people keep battling POTUS. The group has reduced its members lately, and Trump slowly gained support after fulfilling most campaign promises, especially the economy, until the COVID-19 arrived.

Surprisingly, the US economy, although the Wall Street market has shown some days of deep plunging, followed by also strong rebounds, is considered by experts, including the Federal Reserve Chief, as healthy and robust, reaching the 30.000 marks lately, in November 2020, never shown before.

Some experts predict an unusual increase in investors' confidence in the USA and the Market Capitalist system. However, the possible Biden Administration has other plans that will damage our economy and increase the Chinese domination of the World's economy. If Biden enters the Oval Office, China will have its pet in the White House.

57 -Hollywood/Nazi Connection During The Depression.

As mentioned earlier, the Hollywood elite is in full support of the DNC, now hijacked by the Postmodern Liberal Movement.

It is significant that during the times of the US Depression in the 1930s, the big Hollywood producers worked closely with the Nazis to survive the economic crisis.

Hitler's addiction to Hollywood movies is widely known. Some historians say the Führer never fell asleep without first watching a Hollywood movie. At that time, Germany was the most important market for the American film industry. Any film projected in Germany's theaters ensured the real income to its producer desperately needed for survival.

Hitler even had an exclusive Ambassador in Hollywood, named Georg Gyssling, who frequently visited the studios and supervised the productions and their contents. Gyssling regularly inspected the new production's scripts carefully and even prohibited some of them from continuing filming or forcing changes that would negatively affect the reputation of his boss, Adolph Hitler.

Producers, unable to obtain money loans from American banks due to the economic crisis, found an essential cash source in the vibrant German industries, which considered the film industry very profitable and anxious to invest.

Despite the apparent ownership of the film studios by Jewish investors, the magnates opted for the convenient separation of business and religion. This close relationship with the Nazis probably left a legacy in the Hollywood elite, particularly about the Third Reich fanatic practices.

The closeness between Left and Right was, at that time, confusing, and its traditions sometimes superimposed at some point. Money was the main issue.

Both were totalitarians. Thus, the Postmodern Liberalism Movement is itself totalitarian.

Over the years, the Hollywood community has shown a controversial identity, where autocratic ideas appear at every step of the way, while money is always King.

At this time, it is not different. It helps a totalitarian movement such as Postmodern Liberalism, which supports an attempt to go against conservatives whose primary motive is to maintain Market Capitalism's fundamental principles and morals: reputation, respect, and economic prosperity.

However, it is not clear if the reason is to ruin our conservative bases or personal hatred towards President Trump. I am inclined to believe that they hate Donald Trump because he is trying to keep the country conservative against the Postmodern Liberalism's intentions to turn it into a modern version of Sodom and Gomorrah.

However, I doubt the Hollywood community understands or even tries to know the President's philosophy. In my opinion, we could synthesize as Liberal-Conservative, which means a traditional Conservative base but open to some Liberal ideas. Not like Postmodern Liberalism but like its old etymological meaning: Liberalism= "Open to changes and exploring new ideas."

However, I insist that observing the Ancient Scriptures' experience is wise advice to preserve our country's success and identity.

58 -Education's control Is Part Of The Liberal's Plan.

Postmodern Liberals' intentions have become even more radicalized and are pushing the movement further to the left, making the issues they are pressing stranger and shameful. Simultaneously, they reduce the space between the Left and the Right in a threatening way. Turning to the Left all the way, it will find the hard totalitarian Right that dominates the Left utilizing money, power, and corruption. The winners are always the same: The wealthiest people.

The 1 % form the elite that prefers and loves totalitarianism, regardless of the political trench. Those are the Oligarchs that corrupt the Communists and Socialists rulers and monopolize the lion's share in any government. For them, people are only numbers without a soul.

Nowadays, it seems the Democratic Party is pushing towards an exact totalitarian leadership style where a big Government commanded by an elite of presumably privileged individuals would indoctrinate the masses to obey their orders without dissenting or even asking questions.

A similar government like China under Xi Jinping; he enjoys a lifetime President or Chairman title.

A clear example is an appearance in Congress of the very ambitious young woman, Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez. She, by chance, was elected Representative of The Democrat Party at 29 years of age.

In her first two months in Congress, she has already proclaimed herself the leader of the Democrat Party without having been serious opposition to her assumption.

The actual leader of the House, Nancy Pelosi, has remained mute. Immediately, AOC launched an idea, completely unreal, unrealizable by the exorbitant cost and its thoroughly deranged nature.

The plan, called "Green New Deal," demands the ban of all air commercial transportation and proposes changing the US energy matrix in ten years to renewable energy exclusively. Simultaneously, it shows an irrational philosophy that includes the total renovation of absolutely all USA's buildings and houses that depend on fossil or nuclear fuels. There is no known energy source for such a replacement, something utterly unrealizable since no technology allows the exclusion of fossil fuel or nuclear energy.

The AOC madness does not stop there. She has suggested that women should wonder if having babies is worth it because of climate change. Also, she asks for the elimination of all cows because their flatulent discharges are contaminating gases.

The proposal is too extensive and utterly undoable, so I will avoid detailing it at this time.

The huge problem is that Biden is wholly sold to such an idea, although he is trying to deflect his commitment to a lesser drastic sketch published on his website.

AOL keeps insisting that she and her movement (The Squad) will continue to lobby for adopting her idea.

60 -Today's Education Fiction.

Education is the first issue Fascist, Communist, or Nazi want to control. As history shows, one of the first measures of those totalitarian ideologies is the appropriation and manipulation of the educational system.

Totalitarian political doctrines need to command educators and manipulate them to indoctrinate young minds in their political philosophy. In the Postmodern Liberal agenda, indoctrination replaces education. We will show some examples.

60 -The California Chaos.

I was recently in Los Angeles, visiting friends. California, especially the cities of San Francisco and Los Angeles, is the greatest bastion of the Postmodern Liberal Movement. Except for Hollywood and its surroundings, the Pacific coast, and other places where the rich and famous dwell, most of its population seems to be living off the Government's welfare.

Of course, it is not a crime to seek government help. The social assistance system supposes to temporarily help American citizens recover, redesign their lives, and contributing to the families to enter or return to a productive life.

However, Democrats, who were hijacked by Postmodern Liberals, are planning to create a parallel society, which has been restricted to "survival" instead of "living life" productively and dynamically, being pillars of our community. Of course, it is part of the Government's desired dependence, necessary to make people practically slaves of the new system designed by the High-Tech sector, conveniently supported by the Democrat Party.

The ill Democratic State of California Administration has been responsible for the enormous expansion of the homeless, drug addition, and Mental disease," in colossal proportions.

The longtime residents are reasonably alarmed and hiring private security companies to protect their properties.

Many migrate to other states with lower taxes and fewer regulations, totally disenchanted by the famous "California Paradise."

Postmodern Liberals are determined to impose a new division in the American people.

An excessive government with a vast bureaucratic block that 'works' for the State will make decisions about an impoverished society of dependent, uneducated people and increasingly heavy drugs.

The new welfare dependents will abuse the Government's social services.

One of the provisions on the AOC "Green New Deal" is that the Government will pay a basic salary to all citizens who can't find work or those who are unwilling to work (former Presidential candidate Andrew Young proposed $ 1.000.00 monthly) Alexandria Ocasio remarked. Unbelievable!

Capitalism may not be perfect, but it is undoubtedly the most effective system to grow and develop our World in freedom and justice. The United States is a good example, or was at least in the recent past.

Of course, undesirable human greed spoils the high characteristics of Market Capitalism. Still, unless we can change the person's nature and behavior, all we can do is continue to work to improve the system and society.

Democrats, in exchange, are proposing a mass of people embedded in a group thinking, obeying a bunch of bureaucrats, commanded by corrupt politicians concurring with the old Capitalists now converted in Oligarchs, enriching themselves by the Lefty Politicians' association.

Is that what the American People want? I don't think so.

61 -Political Correctness.

The now-famous expression: Political Correctness (PC), has lately been a way to keep society segregated, but under different standards, where the groups that once dominated are guilty and ensure that their members assume the consequent burden, of course, exaggerated by the new directives from the Left.

The Left is an integral part of the Postmodern Liberal ideology, as well as Fascism, which was initiated from the Left by Benito Mussolini, or Hitler's National Socialism, the Democrat Party of the People.

For example, in the field of education, conservative professors are segregated, only because they continue teaching science, as usual, observing hundreds of years of development and progress.

They continue to qualify the students in the old fashion way. While on the left, it is about indoctrination. With different rules, though, now enforced by the new leadership known as Postmodern Liberalism that has infiltrated and hijacked the Democratic Party, imposed leftist Socialist-Communist philosophy and then added Anarchist Fascist values to help to enforce them.

We must remember that Mussolini, the creator of Fascism, was a member of the Italian Socialist Party, and Hitler's Party was National Socialism, the people's party. Democrats have also made room to adopt the "Islamist ideology," which I refuse to call only "religion."

Islam has at least four facets:

- 1) Merchants (used as exploratory commercial penetration).
- 2) Military (following the settlement of the merchant, including the former Barbary Pirates, now called Islamic Radical Terrorists),
- 3) Political (after the military incursions, dictate the laws), and
- 4) Religious (the ultimate goal and destiny of all efforts): religious indoctrination.

They have been doing it for 1400 years without any changes. We will go into detail in other chapters.

As we can see, this new Postmodern Liberal Movement is an extensive agglutination of different ways of thinking and acting. Some opposed to the others, whose only common denominator is the opposition or antagonism to the conservatism and "liberal-conservatism," a lifestyle that Donald Trump proposes.

The most notable addition is then an absolute demagogic behavior: the application of "political correctness." Insults and especially the expressions: "racist, homophobic, intolerant, misogynist, radical, sexist, anti-immigrant, anti-LGBTQ," and many other willfully derogatory adjectives are exchanged across the aisle, deeply dividing our society today.

The hilarious stuff is that Democrats accuse Trump of being the divider.

This polarization often results in the wrong language, which prevents having smart communication.

The postmodern liberal coalition has flooded the atmosphere of lies with such a force that the word lost credibility in every way. They use lies to combating another lie and thus confuse and hide the truth.

It is, in fact, the glamour of totalitarianism. Although this pernicious fashion is in full force in big cities like Los Angeles, Chicago, New York, Baltimore, and others, it has not fully reached American society.

However, there is an open cultural war that conservative or traditional people face. They desperately try to defend our country's greatness built brick by brick for more than two hundred and forty-some years. It has been successful and productive for American citizens and the entire World.

The contribution of our Market Capitalist Society to the World is irrefutable proof of our success. The approximated thirty million illegals in the country, plus the millions waiting in line for a legal entrance to the USA, cannot be all wrong; they all dream of being Americans; Also, the hordes of people trying daily to enter our country illegally.

However, it seems to have been dramatically criticized and challenged by the inept Democrats in the last decade.

American Left-wing is trying to change the direction of our lifestyle. They ignore the accumulated experience for more than one hundred and fifty years since Karl Marx and Fredrich Engels devised the evil philosophy designed to replace God's creation standards, for a Godless system implanted by the Government, led by mortals as a guide and direction towards the future. I will expand on this later.

For now, the so-called PC (Political Correctness), represented by a distorted understanding of natural human behavior, is beginning to take over the centers of liberal education in the United States' major cities.

Parents rely on pedagogy in the United States, hoping that their children will learn the skills necessary to find good jobs.

However, some of those parents have a significant part of the blame on failing results.

Not all conservative parents are role models. Many of them are pushing for their children's performances to improve falsely, just for their satisfaction or to get better jobs for them.

Some would encourage cheating or lying to get better grades and try a whole series of tricks to satisfy their false pride. Others engage in buying favors, paying fortunes to enroll their kids in Universities. That is what we call the negative characteristics of some human beings. Parents send their children to high schools, colleges, and universities, pay more than sixty thousand dollars a year, and when young people return home, the only thing they can offer is contempt.

There are many reports and interviews of college and university students, with horrific results that show the absolute ignorance of the majority of the learners consulted.

The answers they have provided are a shame for our society. Most students have no idea about the basic knowledge that any elementary school child, 50 years ago, would have known in great detail. It is a real shame.

A sinister plot has been discovered, including Hollywood stars on the screen.

Here is what we know.

The FBI has found a criminal maneuver in which a registration manager at universities such as Yale, Georgetown, USC, Stanford, UCLA, Texas, and San Diego, named Rick Singer, has been accused of fraud. Singer submitted pictures of students with their faces in someone else's photo, showing evident superiority on sports, together with false statements and affidavits, to force his clients' acceptance into colleges.

By paying sums of up to one half million dollars in bribes to Mr. Singer, celebrities as actresses: Felicity Huffman and Lory Laughlin, also accused by the FBI of fraud and other crimes, tried to force their daughters to register in a University.

It seems the mentioned entities weren't officially aware of the plot. One can understand that millionaire parents want to help their children to have a better future, but violating the laws and worse, passing over talented students who do not have millionaire parents is despicable behavior.

65 -Defining Postmodernism.

Postmodernity is ruining the life of the student. In general, a small number of young people go to high school, colleges, or universities to get an education.

At the end of the road, politics would probably help some of them improve their lives and the connections they could make, especially on prestigious educational complexes.

Most students know that some of their classmates would probably get an influential executive or government job that will allow them to hire other employees after graduation.

Of course, selecting these potential workers will be among the students who shared the same classes in universities or colleges.

It's natural. Executives seem to prefer to work with colleagues who graduated from a familiar source. Therefore, public relations are always a sure way to see future employment. That is why, as a student, it is essential to be "someone," intelligent, attractive, or maybe just a show-off; A superficial display of intelligence.

That is the conventional approach today.

The new progressive order has the intention to interrupt or prevent conservatives from making their point of view.

In states like Illinois and California, postmodern liberals are blocking any attempt by conservatives to expose their ideas, even by force and violent behavior, as we all have seen lately in TV news at UC Berkeley and others.

Destruction of private and public property is frequent, trying to stop any conservative speech. The police have not been able or willing to prevent the disruptors from doing so, and what is worst, punish them for preventing such disturbing behavior from continuing.

66 -Black Lives Matter and Antifa enter the game.

Democrats knew that they needed a drastic new plan, and it had to be bold, ruthless, and violent.

With the active help of BLM and Antifa, they engaged in the determined and meticulous destruction of President Trump and the United States of America, as we know it.

Right after the 2020 election, Senator Schumer yelled on National TV: "Now we take Georgia (referring to the run-off for two Senators to define the Senate's control) and then, we change America." There are no doubts Democrats want to end our success as a country for over 245 years and attempt to convert our Nation to a "one Party system" in which, in the future, a Republican President would be impossible. Democrats aim for a One Party Country. Just like China.

Postmodern liberals are trying to create a mass of people unable to face any difficulty in life, so; it will allow bureaucrats who work for the Government to act on their behalf and make all decisions for them, of course, under the High-Tech Billionaires' leadership.

Thinking is not necessary for postmodern life. That is scary!

An excess of liberal professors is the biggest problem.

Often, the professionals, who could not achieve success in the business world, accept jobs as educators and bring all the frustration caused by their lack of acceptance by a better-paid business community, probably too selective. So, they carry their disappointment to the educational center that hosted their liberal status.

Of course, this is not the case in general, although an undesired practice, increasingly frequent.

Liberalism used to be a progressive form of ideology (in the proper etymology of the word) promoting new ideas, changing old and fatigued norms.

Also, there are many Liberal-Conservatives, and I consider myself one of them, who believe in ancient teachings and rules, but who also accepts new ways of thinking, reviewing, and updating the basic concepts of contemporary life.

Like all things in life, if exaggerated, they become useless or even against the original intent.

That is what has happened with the Liberal Movement. It became so damn liberal, so influenced by the Atheist Left that it went in the opposite direction, creating a clash of cultures, with the aggravation of a violent fanaticism added.

An adverse electoral result that upset the relations between people is something totally unwanted. Among other negative aspects, it has separated people instead of uniting them, which we all should want. But the Democrat Party's plan is now different. An absolute power-grab to install a totalitarian form of Government designed and manipulated by the new Oligarchs of Silicone Valley, in tandem with the Washington swamp.

Part of the change is the excessive politicization of the LGBTQ, not satisfied with Conservative society recognizing their lifestyles, now in a bold campaign to promote the expansion of their sexual ideas, borderline with sodomizing and corrupting naive, innocent youngsters, willing to try different feelings and now messing with infants and very tender children.

Because let's face it. It's everything about feelings, ignoring reality, and past experiences with negative results.

Just take a look at what happened in Berkeley, CA., in 2017. The city is famous for being a place in northern California, on the east side of San Francisco Bay, and home to the University of California, Berkeley, the birthplace of the Freedom of Expression Movement of the 1960s. However, in recent events, freedom of expression was denied to several speakers, who invited by the Conservative Students, tried to spread their traditional thoughts.

The people's violent behavior on the Left caused damages worth millions of dollars, destroying public and private property, trying to stop the presentation of different speakers talking about their traditionalist beliefs.

The Postmodern Liberal Movement is trying to change the course of our incredible success as a Nation and replace it with an authoritarian system that promotes hatred and forbids opposition to its Left/Postmodern Liberal/Atheistic beliefs. It is not a positive result, we could say. They are ignoring the experience of the many countries that suffered the governments of Socialist and Communist systems.

The above is the core of the idea Democrats pushed in the middle of the 2020 summer, and with the help of BLM and Antifa, created Civil unrest, sometimes chaos, similar to a Civil War; we'll expand on the next Chapter.

68 -The New Liberal Education Mentality.

One of the selected practices of 'Political Correctness' is not saying the students' qualifications out loud in the universities' world. All grades must be confidential to protect the student's self-esteem, they say.

It is clear that knowing the grades of other students inspires debate and generates the impetus to improve performance, even though it also provides a filter that would separate the talented from the mediocre.

Competition is what has made Western Civilization and Market Capitalism preferred systems in the World. Indeed, the most successful and productive.

When we were students, I can remember that the performance of some advantaged classmates was an incentive to improve our effort. Seeing the advanced students who came to the front to tell their progress and the new developments in the subjects was a motivating and positive experience for many other young students and me. Having talented classmates was an honor and inspiration to improve our work and learning process. However, these days, things seem to be completely different under the new Postmodern Liberal ideology.

68 -Defending The Student's Feelings?

A story circulates in the student media. A girl comes home crying to her mother because another child was deliberately belching in her face, poking her with pencils in her hands and head whenever he approached her.

The mother complains to the school counselor. He tells her to be patient because she would not want to hurt the other child's feelings and asked her to think that he might have had inadequate education and that he "was not educated correctly."

That is the focus of today's educator leadership. They defend the aggressor, justifying their actions instead of punishing them and telling them they are wrong, that they must change their behavior and not be aggressive with their fellows. They call it "defending the student's feelings."

69 -The Teacher's Complaints.

Some good teachers have complained that they receive a "system average" rating on their performances, which only teaches ELA (English Language Arts and Literature). Therefore, if you are an incredible teacher of physics or mathematics, you are given the system's average performance, even if this means reducing the average of your evaluation. Teachers are forced, under liberal postmodern thinking, to share the qualifications with low-level teachers.

Everyone must share a summative assessment score, only in two categories of educators: Science and ELA. That is the concept of the new Liberal Educational Leadership.

That is how Marx and Engels thought, creating a disaster in all the countries where "Socialism or Communism" was practiced.

These evil characters are the basic construction of Socialism and Communism as a substitute for the personal capacity given to the individual by creation. Or even the progress that a person could achieve through their discipline and consistency by an average, dividing the collective efforts by a denominator whose result would give the same figure.

Of course, such a practice becomes completely artificial and demeaning to the more intelligent and gratifies those who have mediocre performance.

That is the philosophy Postmodern Liberals are trying to impose. They insist on the failed concept of Karl Marx and Fredrich Engels, of flattening individuality, to create a group where the personality is null, to exacerbate the sense of community. That would meet the Communist Government's goal of nullifying the person and forcing them to participate in an impersonal group with no desire to improve them.

Postmodern Liberalism and The Democratic Party are trying to eliminate individuality to impose collective thinking.

70 -Free Speech, No Longer Available.

Even at the lowest level, the rule's changes indicate the extent of the Left's push to accuse what they call the "white supremacy" of segregation and other crimes.

They define especially the white man educated as racist, intolerant, anti-immigrant, so their campaign aimed at silencing Conservatives who want to talk about Socialists' experience and their failures in countries where they have experimented with that ideology.

My birth country, Uruguay, is one of those. Happily, in November of 2019, the Uruguayan people realized the error and voted Socialism out, after fifteen years of disasters.

The infiltration of thousands of lefty teachers and professors in colleges and universities is determined to use their physical and mental power over their students to join and violently transmit the Postmodern Liberal message.

Recent events in California and Illinois show how they use their local publications on campuses to energize what they call "psychologically gentle minds of the students."

They claim to be generally offended by the slightest opposition to the Left's ideas. They regularly send a strong message to Conservatives, telling them that the freedom of expression contained in the First Amendment is no longer available.

President Trump has just signed an executive order that protects free speech in educational centers, under penalty of taking away economic support. It is worth mentioning that this Right's protection already appears in the Constitution's First Amendment. Recent events say in a booming and violent voice that public lecterns are only for the Left to express their radical ideas.

This behavior renders useless the decades that Liberals fought against evil ideologies such as Communism and Nazism, defending the Right of free expression, in those same universities.

71 -Today's Leftist Campuses.

Many university campuses have prohibited, under the threat of violent disturbances, destruction of public and State property, the presence of speakers such as; Charles A. Murray, Ben Shapiro, Nicholas Dirk, Anita Alvarez, Emily Wong, Jason Riley, Milos Yannopoulous, Ann Coulter, David Horowitz, and other conservative thinkers. They also banned my books, and I am considered an undesirable person.

Traditionalist teachers think that what is happening now is frightening. It seems that the desired fashion for education is for educators to remain in the freezer, while students will educate themselves, giving themselves their qualifications.

Under the postmodern liberal leadership, parents and students will lead the schools, and finally, the teachers will not be necessary. Silly, isn't it?

However, that is the attitude of the Postmodern Liberal culture. Totalitarianism has invaded the Liberals and the Democratic Party. However, there is still a big question mark. What is Islam doing here? We will examine this later on.

We can see an attempt to reduce the level of education, so there would be no competition at the top level.

Postmodern Liberalism's goal is that only a mass of mediocre students aspires to positions within the Great Government ranks.

It is a dark future for young people, a totalitarian result to imitate Communism, Socialism, Nazism, and Fascism.

Meanwhile, the offenses are so subtle that it would be necessary to modify the entire language to avoid conflict when speaking publicly.

Let's clarify that not all universities are like that, but at the pace they go, what the educators show, and the particular elections exercised by the Left's leadership, it would be a miracle that they do not contaminate the entire educational system.

The postmodern liberal tentacles are spreading at an alarming rate. Ignorance is widespread, and a false idea of equality is adding fuel to the fire.

A comment says that the dangerous thing is happening in some universities is a "real movement," based on a leftist philosophy, that struggles to globalize the World and eliminate all prejudices.

Unfortunately, they have taken a reasonable human spiritual transformation and turned it into fascist coercion, a necessary condition for a Godless state, which is its ultimate goal.

Once again, we must draw a line between God's creation and religion, two very different things. The science of God's creation is one thing; It is science and separates from religion, an option made by man to assemble and worship God.

Also, how would they explain a Godless society to their Islamic partners? We will review it later.

72 -The Campuses Safe Spaces.

University campuses' created "safe spaces" to provide students with an environment where they could discuss practical issues, although criticized because they control freedom of expression.

Said action is one of the objectives of the Postmodern Liberal movement, of course.

The Islamic culture is more noticeable every day in the universities and increasingly dominant; Now, they are demanding their own private space in the form of "safe rooms."

72 -Dangerous Alliance With Islam.

The above is the most dramatic. In the Democrat Party's circles, every day with more force and frequency, they talk about the formal inclusion of Islam as a fundamental part of the Democratic Party's political platform.

If accurate, that information would be a stab in the back to our Patriots that bravely fought against totalitarianism and Islamic theology since the 17th century.

It is worth noting that the President who preceded Thomas Jefferson, John Adams sold much of the US warships in the commercial market to avoid fighting Islam. History reports that Adams opposed a US war against Muslims. But under President Jefferson, our navy at the beginning of the Marines' Corp fought relentlessly to reduce the Muslim's power (The Barbary Pirates), who was the Mediterranean Sea shores inhabitants nightmare for several centuries.

Jefferson, under the slogan: "Hit hard without taking prisoners," "Smack-down, no prisoners taken," fought against the Muslims Pirates from 1801 to 1804. Finally, he managed to get the Pasha of Tripoli, the highest Islamic authority, to abolish the US gross product's 10% tax as payment and trade with the Mediterranean countries. They did not bother us again for about 200 years, until recently, 9/11/2001, when they attacked the Twin Towers and Pentagon.

73 -The "Resist" Movement.

Sadly, Democrats weren't able to recover fully after the catastrophic results of the 2016 elections, and the word "resist," as Hillary Clinton said, became the Democrats' obsession; A mantra that has been repeated daily with increasing emphasis and incitement to violence.

We just have witnessed the above when a volunteer from the Bernie Sanders Campaign shot Republican representative Steve Scalise at a charity baseball game's practice.

The mainstream media pointed to the issue as a deranged man, avoiding any connection with Senator Sanders' speech. Such an episode was a typical fanatical leftist against a Conservative, now, unfortunately, a familiar scene.

The apparent fact is that the fierce opposition to conservatism is growing, after the 2016 elections, increasing after President Trump's governing success.

Therefore, the battlefield must begin in the spheres of education, as totalitarian regimes usually impose (Nazis, Communists, Socialists, and Islamic). They manipulate young people through fear, lies, false news, slandering public figures, including sexual liberation, promiscuity, and any other means to suffocate the conservative movement.

Notably, ignorance leads to the protest of a crowd that, when asked why they are complaining, does not know the answers and just parrot clichés supplied by the Lefty leadership.

Traditional media helps with the megaphone, a massive team of "apprentice journalists," and the horde of monsters without God who preach a perverse message to help them.

Democrats' first objective was to add seats in Congress, which failed. Democrats lost about 20 seats in the House, while Republicans gained some 22, mostly conservative women. On the Senate, Republicans keep the majority; the primary aim was to obtain the White House in 2020. It is still in doubt.

Radical feminism is a big part of the Democrat's program. Although paradoxical, the leading liberal objective is a classless, genderless, and faceless society, embedded in collective thinking, devoid of individuality.

The scene has become so sensitive that communication creates a false, hypocritical, and uncomfortable situation. One has to observe the language deeply to avoid offenses, which borders on the ridiculous. It is a time of hypocrisy!

Political correctness is the tool. It suppresses words, potentially destroys sensitivity, and weaponizes the language. Postmodern liberals are creating an enslaving reality where they use expressions as weapons of mass destruction.

They banned many words from the English language, which makes it difficult to express in public freely. Fortunately, in the Spanish Language, the Real Academy is showing good leadership.

Sadly, in the English Language, one has to choose the expression of thoughts with a Postmodern Liberal manual on hand to avoid crashing and offending them.

However, among the black community, the word "nigger" is repeated every two words by blacks without anyone being upset. Curious?

74 -A Genderless Society?

Oh, wait! hinted a student. Do liberals not even recognize the existence of only two genders? How retrograde is the way you indoctrinate kids now?

Also, they point that intersexuality exists, right? There are multiple variations of sex chromosomes, gonads, sex hormones, and genitalia that do not agree with the binary understanding of sex. That is not even in dispute.

However, procreation is only possible if a male and a female have sex or sperm is attached to the female's ovule inside the uterus. The same happens with any other animal specimen.

Therefore, it is not clear what the problem is with the recognition of the two unique genres.

On the other hand, it could be a psychological malfunction that is clouding the understanding of so many people on the Left.

We can turn it over, backward, from side to side, from the inside out, but the genetic information stamped on each chromosome will not change. Until a new order, we will have to deal with only two sexes: male and female, female, and male.

The rest is a mere modification of the human being's psychological behavior, which in some cases can be seriously unbalanced with unpredictable consequences.

Of course, handling these situations should be approached with care and always trying not to disturb or offend the person through inappropriate comments or harsh attitudes, but still bearing in mind that "the right of one ends where the rights of others begin," simple and without complications.

However, the postmodern liberal culture prefers to make a big scandal, extending the prevention of clashes between both parties, suppressing the words, instead of requesting manners, and eventually accepting the rejections that people may feel natural if delivered kindly.

Human beings are not perfect, and although we must strive for perfection, we are not close to it.

In this case, manners are useful to improve relationships between people. Nevertheless, cutting out personal thoughts, avoiding expressions that can hurt other people's feelings that express themselves is not in any way a solution. The individual's speech is as crucial as the Right of the recipient to reject it. Freedom of expression is as sacred as the Right to refuse it by others.

76 -Everybody Get A Medal?

The truth shows that no one, ever, could have established a society not even close to what the Postmodern Liberals propose.

This highly arrogant community tries to implement the idea of "everyone deserves a medal." Therefore, there are no people left behind, not even at the cost of mediocrity, which seems to be the desired product.

Teachers should not criticize students who make mistakes because "somehow they are less capable," and God forbid the teacher to yell at a student!

In most cases at "Liberal Universities," educators are told to apologize to a spoiled idiot because he/she got upset after being punished for being rude to a partner.

That is our school system today. Well, not all, thank God, but if the error is not corrected, it will be a general fashion.

God bless the souls of my school teachers. They shouted at me to correct the mistakes I had made. But I learned.

Do not ever think of anyone mentioning that there are only two genders! Of course, there are only two genders! The whole liberal World will fall on your head, and the force of the community desiring to be genderless will crush you ruthlessly! You are destroying their fantasy.

Postmodern Liberals instruct parents not to reveal the sex of their children at birth and tell them to decide which way they wish to go when they grow up, which is criminal behavior.

It does not matter if you believe in Creation or Evolution's theories, although it could be a combination of both; gender is a thing of the past for Postmodern Liberals.

I remember reading the Lenin Decalogue of 1913, with instructions on seizing a country to Communism.

Article number one says 1) "Corrupt young people and give them absolute sexual freedom." Does it sound familiar?

I will publish the entire set of Lenin's Decalogue later.

The Left promotes that rules are not so simple but somewhat complicated by the proposed gender changes. For them, physical and psychological are the same, which at the moment it is an illusion; pure fantasy.

A BRUTAL ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY

CHAPTER 2

(The Plot)

79 -The Strategy.

79 - Postmodern Liberal Movement In Action:

79 -Their Plans To Destroy Western Civilization.

As described in Chapter 1, the new Postmodern Liberal's have made an Alliance: They have weaved a net against the Conservatives. The latter defend Western Civilization, the most beneficial influence on humanity in our World. Of course, it is not perfect.

However, the balance left by Western Civilization is highly favorable.

Among the benefits to our culture are the highest advancements in human rights, the progress of sciences, education evolution, and the positive improvements in human relations as the end of slave-owning in America. Unfortunately, there is still Slavery around the World.

Postmodern Liberals, on their part, are irresponsibly turning Left, pushing Socialism (one step away from Communism). Also, they are inviting Islam as an ally to help in the fight against the Conservative Movement.

They would do anything to satiate their obsession with taking Trump down and destroying the USA as it is now. Just read the Koran and Hadith to learn the truth of the Muslim's goals and philosophy. Besides, understand the real meaning of Socialism and Communism, now with the drastic changes implemented by China, and the core of the Postmodern Liberalism goals. Those two groups are the worse USA enemies, now adding the new Democrat Party, on its present totalitarian style. Meanwhile, watch the remains of the old Democratic Party members submissively following the trend, leaving behind years of moderated center-left politics.

Democrats, after the 2020 election, are quickly regrouping and taking convenient positions to grab at least a small piece of the handle, that surely will help them enrich themselves. It is all about money, to eventually buy power, the ultimate goal. The recent election of two Congress Representatives, Ilhan Omar and Rashida Tlahib, prove their ill intentions.

As soon as they took office, Omar aggressively attacked Israel in an unequivocal racist and poor ethical attitude, which the other Democrat congress-people did not dare to condemn.

Besides, the well-known Communist lover Alexandra Ocasio Cortez (AOC), and Ayanna Presley, two ultra radicals, also, conveniently Islam lovers, helped to form what we call: The Squad; A quartet of disgraceful USA haters. Let's remember that Communism and Islam hate each other.

Is it time for Jewish people to leave the DNC? Maybe. Think about it.

Many 'Old Democrats' are also siding now with Socialism, Communism, Anarchism, and the LGBTQ movement, in a genuine attempt to defeat Conservatives.

Also, they welcomed a Fascist group, paradoxically called "Antifa."

Not used to such a bullying crowd, conservatives are slowly reacting to the onslaughts from the Left, overcoming their peaceful nature, now are pushing back.

The 2016 Democrat's losses have been significant, and they continued to lose local elections in 2017. However, in 2020, the pompous announced "Blue Wave" failed miserably.

In 2020, the Democrat's House lost 20 members.

The Democrat Party, hijacked by the Postmodern Liberal Movement, displays a total lack of leadership, an obsessive dedication to derail President Trump, showing a complete absence of ideas to regain the people's favor thru significant issues, unattractive leadership.

Please notice that from our point of view, Trump won the election by a landslide. Still, the imminent fraud, yet not proved by hard evidence, it's starting to show little by little, although compromised by the election time-frame to decide the winner by the Electoral College legally. The US Constitution is frankly so complicated, moreover with the 50 States having local autonomy, their own Constitutions, and the power to manipulate laws that sometimes override the US Constitution. It is weird, but that's the way it is.

Also, some of the State courts, by Septiembre, 2020, modified the local electoral laws, mainly eliminating the voters' signature verification, as well as other rulings, to create the chaos and confusion reigning nowadays.

The present anarchy in the balloting places has allowed the ballot's stuffing, false votes to appear even one month after the election day, and an array of irregularities that benefit Biden and hurting Trump in its totality. No doubts, Democrats are perfecting the art of stealing an election; Not only that but erasing the evidence leaving no trace of their shabby behavior. However, some idiots, pulling suitcases full of ballots pre-filled in Biden's favor, hidden under a table, after Democrats' officials at 10:30 pm dismissed GOP "Poll-Watchers," spent all night stuffing ballots in the voting machines several times. The idiots forgot to turn the security cameras off, and that became evidence. Republicans say that the same procedure was used in other balloting places.

Trying to tempt the American People with Socialist/Communist ideas is not well received. Bernie Sanders and the other politicians of the same lefty ideology were left out of the scene during the electoral campaign, trying to hide Biden's partnership. Nevertheless, the claims to pay back the favors from the campaign's beginning are starting to show right after the election. Everyone is claiming a piece of the pie.

Democrats are only concerned with destroying President Trump to grab the Government's power. They have been unable to show a coherent political platform or any definite Government plans! Only "Resist," an entirely negative term, is in their minds. Additionally, they keep furiously looking for issues and inventing others to condemn President Trump of wrongdoings, until now without success.

The actual Pandemic our country is bravely fighting has not altered the despicable actions of Democrats. They keep pounding the President, doing everything they can to block every move Trump makes to save American lives and keep our economy from collapsing.

The release of the "Trump Vaccine," as I call it, is devastating news for Democrats. By all means, they are trying to degrade it, deny its value, and demonize it, even at the risk of people's death. They don't care about people. They only care about power.

They don't believe in America. They believe in Globalism. They don't believe in our Founding Fathers or our 1778 Constitution. They are traitors!

The Democrat Party's internal shows many reckless politicians, with various controversial electoral propositions that have departed the Party's traditional ideals for decades.

The new proposals, mainly led by Bernie Sanders, with the help of AOC, are Socialist/Communist and failing to say how they will finance them, maybe because there is no way to support crazy plans.

They chose a sugarcoated set of populist promises to fool the ignorant youngsters, so-called "Bernie Bros." lacking any experience in life, to seize their votes.

Joe Biden is repeatedly proving to be unable to show coherence in his speech, with his increasing daily gaffes, a total mess. Sometimes, the man seems to have lost track of where he is standing.

The Left has never shown any country that had a Socialist/Communist government flourishing experience. Venezuela is its last disaster.

Uruguay, finally, after 15 years of Socialist Government destruction, voted them out and returned to Democracy and Market Capitalism.

Bernie Sanders insists that the Nordic countries are Socialist in his lying speech, something those Nations deny repeatedly. Still, the corrupt Media keeps hiding the facts to hurt Trump.

Besides, note that the Nordic country's taxes are up to 70%. They are, in reality, Free Market economies.

However, the real issue is that all the giveaways, free stuff, pardoning students' debts, welcome illegal immigration, open borders, Medicare for all, free this, free that, really;? Nothing is for free.

Someone will have to pay for it!. In this case: The American taxpayer.

The Mainstream Media continue to cooperate with Postmodern Liberals, many of the Colleges' Directors, the University's faculty, and Administrators who are disrupting the Campuses practices in favor of the anti-Conservative mob.

The country is in a terrible spot, socially and politically divided like never before. With the COVID-19 Pandemic severely minimizing all fields, especially the economy, 30 million Americans plus are without a job. Compare the numbers with Trump's economy, a 3.5 % jobless rate until the Coronavirus rained in the parade.

Believe it or not, that is the dream of most Democrat politicians. We can remember the TV personality Bill Maher: "I am 'Hoping' For 'A Crashing Economy' So We Can Get Rid Of Trump, 'Bring On The Recession.'" Such a despicable statement is, unfortunately, the mood in most DNC politicians.

However, the actual economic crisis is not due to American finances' mishandling, but because of a Health Crisis that originated in Wuhan, China. Still, our economy remains healthy, temporarily affected by the COVID-19.

Unfortunately, Democrats use The Pandemic as a massive War weapon against Trump and the Republican Party, and why not to the United States of America as we know it and love it for 245 years.

An Anti-American campaign is in motion, with one of the eldest newspapers, The New York Times, in a leadership position. They insist on calling the USA a systemic racist country, now supporting a hoax they call the "1619 Project," an attempt to reframe American history, a false argument the New York Times' is trying to promote that the American's fought a Revolution to protect Slavery. In any case, the Party in favor of Slavery was the Democrats, while Republicans wanted to abolish Slavery. Abraham Lincoln, a Republican President, finally did it and paid with his life.

They also deny the United States of America's real foundation in 1774, together with our Constitution of 1778.

If those idiots were in China or even in Russia, there would be many rolling heads.

Postmodern Liberals, integrated by Democrats, some Independents, Socialists, Anarchists, Communists, Mainstream Media, LGBTQ, Hollywood elite, helped by the Islamist wearing a ship's skin, under a wolf's identity, in one side; On the opposite side, conservatives and moderates keep pushing to reject totalitarianism.

Curiously, the High-Tech Industry's Elite is also pushing against the President because he disagrees with their employment policies that favor immigrants to replace American workers with cheaper immigrants.

Democrats keep arguing in favor of open borders to invite Illegal Immigration into our country but do not allow them to live near them. There are no poor people's shelters in Beverly Hills, West Hollywood, or Malibu, of course.

On the other side, the Conservatives, working people, Middle Class, Christians, Hindus, Asians, educated Hispanic, European, a portion of Black's, Slavic heritage-related and, of course, the unavoidable 1%, except a part of the new High-tech-billionaires in Silicon Valley supporting Postmodern Liberalism, are enjoying President Trump's America First. Let's remember that President Trump, speaking before the UN assembly, clearly stated that "any President of any country is elected to put his country first." So, putting America First is not an attempt to diminish the other countries, but keep focusing on its people first. A President's obligation.

The Silicon Valley Elite desperately want to keep importing high tech engineers and workers from India (70%) and China (20%) to replace Americans for a fraction of the money they pay the locals.

They even force Americans to train foreign employees, and after they transfer the knowledge to them, they fire them without any consideration. Such is the hideous part of the American Capitalism I vehemently despise.

A significant portion of those companies profit goes to CEO's and their small elite close to the top. Most of the "imported talent" make between $ 70,000. and 100,000 dollars a year. They pay American workers a higher figure, so they want to get rid of them. Greed is the drive.

They are two well-defined sides, very different philosophies of life, where ancestry plays an important role, especially in keeping the traditions and old culture. They are opposing radical changes that will demean not only Western Culture but also Spanish, Asians, Slavic, European, and Hindu traditions.

It is a battle between the old customs and the radical new attempts to dismiss the safety standards of life, try some crazy experiments, play with feelings, and new unexplored games that will end damaging Society to irreparable consequences.

The Chinese are at the helm. The new attachment to their authoritative modified addition of "Market Capitalism" Western-style created their version of "State Capitalism" that enslaves their workers. It deprives them of even asking questions and paying them only enough to keep them alive, work, and survive in inhuman conditions.

Our Creator established which kind of ideas in our Universes we must adopt to keep orderly growth. God has delivered a conscious Legacy, perfectly coordinated and defined in his philosophy.

Unfortunately, many Postmodern Liberals deny Creation. They ignore that evolution is a consequence of Creation.

We must keep developing our culture safely, maintaining a common sense based on past experiences, and future guidance following tradition. Balance is the key.

Postmodern Liberals are ignoring the examples of recent degradation caused by some severe mistakes, like the AIDS spreading thru unsafe sex practices and sharing needles, and insisting on continuing to ignore the red lights.

They keep promoting a libertine lifestyle, which has failed in all past experiences, causing considerable damage to our Society.

Maybe they aim for a modern take of Sodom and Gomorrah.

86 -American Families Are Against Genderless Society.

The American family has been the primary component of Society. Keeping a traditional lifestyle is not only socially desired but also suited to religious practices – all religions counsel to preserve decency and restraint regarding sex life and personal relationships.

Postmodern Liberals accuse religions of being an obstacle to free thinkers, people opposing traditionalism, and welcoming new ways of relating to others, mainly through open sexual practice.

They ignore that so far, nobody has encountered happiness or total satisfaction through sexual intercourse only.

Additionally, widespread reckless sexual practices bring illnesses, cultural and social problems.

Those practices mostly bring difficulties to relationships because of jealousy and other mixed and confusing human feelings that always appear sooner or later.

The truth is, regardless of superficial opinions, that sex is a tool for procreation, the essential part of the animal and human life's survival; no one can deny it.

That is why the Creator made sex so appealing and unavoidable with the intended meaning to have intercourse between the two genders as the only means to create a newborn and an almost impossible way to avoid it. Unfortunately, people confuse the objectives as well as the results.

Instead, Postmodern Liberals have instituted a new idea: a genderless society – a total fantasy based on the pretended choice of gender by individual selection after birth.

It is a fictional way to express their dark and ignorant wish of adopting an alternative identity, which would only satisfy, in part, their imagination and feelings, but not reality.

Such a choice is only temporary make-believe that could meet their desires for some time until they realize that it is only an illusion. It is described in the Vedas by the word 'Maya.' Maybe the fantasy may remain for their whole material lives, but still fiction, like a dream.

So, being in 'Maya' means living an illusion.

A temporary feeling that would not make anything unreal, becoming real. It is, instead, a mental disruption.

The embattled "Planned Parenthood," the ultra-liberal organization accused of selling fetuses and baby parts for a profit, which also dedicates 80% of their activities to provide abortion services, has established new guidelines to define the gender of a newborn.

Furthermore, the controversial group advice instructs parents to tell children to avoid considering the sexual organs to define their gender.

In an open homosexual-friendly effort, the organization is stepping on the gas pushing for a genderless society in opposition to all religious groups and the scientific community, which has not changed the definition of sexual orientation or the gender assigned at birth.

The truth is, anyone that wants to change their gender is only possible as a fantasy and an unreal experience that would last only a moment, maybe a material lifetime, but it would not modify the facts.

People are born either female or male. There is no other option. Of course, they are allowed to "feel" the way they wish, but it will not affect reality.

However, individuals who want to live such a fantasy have the right to do it.

Nevertheless, the controversial part of the Postmodern Liberal philosophy is that they want others to accept fantasy as real while it is not; it remains only an illusion; All that effort, only to justify the wishful person's feeling.

Of course, the rest does not matter for their utter egotistic unreal thought.

Postmodern Liberals need to accept that a society based on feelings is only fiction that they can choose living, although still, it is not real.

The LGBTQ community is bustling, working to widen the acceptance of some new denominations that lately they have been trying to validate by including them in dictionaries, social media, and other fields.

The group is a dedicated community, initially created to fight for same-sex intercourse recognition in a Conservative Society, disgusted in part by some unexpected proposed changes, rated not acceptable by the community as public expressions of intimate affections. In my opinion, sexual relations should be kept private for heterosexual couples too. Let's stay sexual life confidential, please.

Although we must appreciate their effort to recognize the rights of the people they defend, they are confusing their boundaries. Moreover, here, I would like once again to remember an essential old thought:

"My rights end where the other people's rights begin."

The terminology used by these new Postmodern Liberals is broad and diversified; although they organize it to satisfy their community, it sometimes becomes controversial and confusing. Their will to bully Conservatives is not a nice fellow's attitude.

That is the case with the word "Gay," which in the twelve century meant "happy." In the seventeenth century, Society commonly used the word gay to indicate "immoral," in the nineteenth century, it meant a "female prostitute" also (a gay man used to define a man who had sex with female prostitutes a lot).

So, terminology mutates and accommodates the purposes of the trend.

However, their central objective is to keep pushing for the acceptance of the ultra-liberal way of life and have the Conservatives increasingly acknowledging their escalating way for Postmodern Liberalism to be accepted and respected.

Those attempts do not seem to be changing the bottom line: Regardless of the different ways they are being described and named, our human race only has two genders, impossible to change after birth: female and male.

The pretended way of life may have dozens of sub-denominations, but the reality is the same, Male or Female.

Lately, they have been pushing trans-genders behavior, an even more outrageous fashion that a few confused people are living in their fantasy.

The bottom line is that Postmodern Liberals are determined to disrupt life traditions while Conservatives are defending the standards, based on past behavior, and keeping in mind the Sacred Scriptures wise advice.

These are all-time accurate guidance regarded by the majority and the Scientist's opinions, most of which agree with the Scriptures.

The United States of America has been the Free World leader by traditionally adhering to the conservative style, although accepting certain liberality within consciousness. I call it: Liberal-Conservatism.

That practice had its rewards, providing a long string of benefits that have made people as happy and prosperous as possible in this material world where we live.

The battle continues to keep equilibrium because the voters, electing Donald J. Trump, decided to restrain the path of liberal craziness and return to the more traditional lifestyle.

At least until January 20th, 2021, President Trump is determined to help stop the excesses, and it seems people are positively responding little by little to his ideas. But the heavy pounding of anti-Trump opinions by the Mainstream Media, and their acolytes, has been hideously heavy and convincing to the most ignorant people while hiding, burying the President's positive achievements.

The "resist" movement lead by the Democrat Congress-people relentlessly slowed the Trump Administration's actions by delaying and obstructing all its moves.

The House of Representatives, in the hands of an utterly crazy Nancy Pelosi, has been the principal cause of the Government's actions disruption.

Unfortunately, Democrats never realized that if the President loses, we all lose. Nobody wins.

Or maybe they desired the entire country to fail. Democrats had the idea to "Rebuild better," as they announced during the campaign. Let's see.

It is obvious Democrats hate our country as it is today. They prefer the Global World, and they want to destroy it to replace it with the Postmodern Liberalism style we are detailing here.

It breaks my heart to write it, but in the middle of the present turmoil, health-wise and economic uncertainty, some people on the Left are showing satisfaction with the possibility of our economy's collapse, which would bring our President down.

91 -The well-planned Theft of the Century.

Democrats used and abused COVID-19 as a weapon. As the majority-whip Congressman James E. Clyburn (D-SC) expression: "We shouldn't let COVID-19 go to waste."

They knew they would need a more efficient tool to "get rid of Trump,' as they say. Unquestionably, they used the Pandemic to the fullest extent, fruitfully.

So, a few months before the Nov. 3rd election, taking advantage of the states governed by Democrats and cities controlled by their majors, they made many changes to their electoral laws, some of them unconstitutional or illegal. In the State Legislature, those changes are only valid when performed by the local Congresses, not by the Governors, Mayors, or even the State Supreme Courts.

But because it takes time to do it right, they did it anyway, without the GOP's opposition. Of course, they had the Media supporting the move, arguing, of course, the COVID-19 excuse, disenfranchisement, racism, and the like.

The new changes included letting the ballots go without a signature or address verification, allowing dead people to vote, disregarding double voting, sending millions of ballots to people who no longer lived in the State.

Voting by mail is an old practice in the USA, but those, called absentee ballots, are mainly used by the service people staying overseas, on business, or many other causes. However, they send the ballots after the individuals request them. But Democrats, abusing of the Pandemic, mailed them to everybody they've got an address. The result was that many, or most of the ballots went to inexistent people, dead, absent, or unknown, and many other reasons, so the people who got those ballots, used illegally, on purpose, to help Biden. Republicans or Conservatives are known to refrain from illegal voting. Although it may be a small portion of disloyal citizens, the majority is against such a practice.

The confusion, distress, and fraudulent indiscriminate "voting by mail" gave them the false results of a rigged 2020 election. Democrats knew that the massive mailing voting would create confusion and chaos, and they warned people, thru the Media, to ignore the traditional results after the voting day. Their new ruling included changes that ballots arriving up to 16 days after November 3rd, and even postmarked on November 4th, will be valid; An utterly absurd order. Such an aberration is a mockery of US Democracy and the election laws.

In any other country, it would scream potential fraud!

Democrats did it masterfully! They created chaos, confusion, and the opportunity to extend the fraud into an army of bureaucrats favoring Biden, to enhance the scheme previously, and secretly spread thru the partisanship, which, by the way, are most of the election's average workers.

We know that government employees are Democrats in its great majority.

So the plan was executed flawlessly, in a way that it would provide an opportunity for the Trump-haters to innovate, and personally, imitating an ant community, cooperate with their grain of sand, to build a final mount of fraudulent votes.

But the Strawberry on the cake was the carefully crafted manipulation of the State Laws, inconceivably out of the reach of the Federal Government, especially being that affecting a Presidential election.

Unfortunately, Federalism is not a perfect form of Government. The founding fathers did not suspect that evolution would take us to this kind of shabby behavior. Those were grossly the plans of Postmodern Liberals in the so-called Democrat Party of today.

Maybe, this was the alibi used, as we read from Marx's political philosophy, to bring Conservatism to rubles and, on top of it, to build a "Communist Paradise," a false statement. After 150 years plus, it has been an impossible dream, a flat failure, with dreadful consequences at every attempt.

However, personal desires, proper of Postmodern Liberal thinking, are commanding the actions against Conservatives.

If these measures are not corrected soon, the United States will be facing self-destruction, after being for two hundred and forty-three years, the model, almost everyone in our World, wants to follow. Except for the Democrat Party politicians, totally unaware of the reality the proposed changes will bring, and Communism lovers, all times passionate ignorants.

Of course, within the Communist philosophy, there are the oppressors (Government officials, politicians, oligarchs, military brass) and the regular people, the oppressed. Right now, we are assisting a demented coalition rooting for the failure of President Trump's plans to unify the two Koreas and denuclearize the Peninsula.

They also criticize and diminish the peace agreement Donald J. Trump promotes in the Middle East between Israel and some Arab countries.

It is negative energy from the Democrat politicians who publicly mock the President's decisions. In the end, all they are samples of achievements by Trump's policies with the Koreans and the Middle Easterns. The USA remains at peace, with no new actual or future wars seen ahead, and the best World economy, despite the health crisis.

We must remind that changes take time, and to expect immediate progress in the negotiations is asking for too much.

In the past 70 years and many presidencies, there has been no world peace progress at all. The narrow path must end, and we need to encounter a center row that could satisfy the extremes without losing the goal. Trump is on his way.

Spirituality, once again, must prevail over the material way.

It only makes sense. We got to act smart!

We all must contribute to the re-alignment of the current path or face derailment, and who knows what other catastrophes?

We need a Liberal-Conservative approach to preserve the traditions, with an open mind to positive gradual changes to our lives, previous in-depth examination of the eventual consequences. Bad times are ahead.

Beware!

The tools are in the box. However, we must learn how to use them wisely and equitably.

First of all, we must revise our Constitution and adjust some of the amendments' interpretations, perhaps better defining its objects and subjects.

The United States of America has a purpose, clearly expressed in our Constitution. We must keep on the path designed by our Founding Fathers.

Millions, among millions, are desperately trying to live, study, work, and raise their families in the USA, under our present lifestyle, developing for over three hundred years. Are they all wrong? Or are we mistaken? I do not think so. So.

About 30 million illegals risked their lives to live in a "systemic racist USA," as Democrats affirm? Hmm.

94 -If it ain't broke, don't fix it!

94 -Democrats Founded the KKK in 1865.

We must remember, Democrats, in the past, have supported or even helped create movements like the KKK, the American Nazis and vigorously defended Slavery. Oh! They do not talk about it at all.

Over the years, the Democrat Party has been a staunch supporter of Slave-ownership. The Civil War was fought between the Republican Abraham Lincoln's supporters to Abolish Slavery and the Democrats to maintain the Slave Trading, among other issues.

History reminds us that Democrat General Nathan Bedford Forrest founded the KKK in 1865, and he was its first grand wizard.

The Republican Party was known in the past as the "Black People's Party," while the Democrat Party was the White People's Party.

Curiously, Democrats are trying to escape that past, which has managed through different tricks, to revert the trend.

Due to John F. Kennedy's alliance with the Black Community, in the figure of Dr. Martin L. King, the reversal was possible.

Do the American People have a short memory or blatant ignorance?

Coretta Scott King asked for help; President Kennedy sent his brother Robert to approach a DeKalb County Judge and successfully lobbied for Martin Luther King Jr.'s release. That started the dreadful Democrat Party's reversal and tilted the popularity scale to the DNC's side.

Dr. King has been the most visible and influential figure in the Black Community's history, and that was no small force.

Since the 1960s, the Democrat Party practically managed to erase its shameful racist past and conquered the majority of the Black votes at the time.

Barry Goldwater's extremism's negative influence helped the shift when the late Senator pronounced against the Civil Liberties Act.

In 1964, with the passage of the Civil Rights Act, President Johnson cemented the Black People's change that helped Carter, Clinton, and later Obama wins the elections.

However, in reality, the Democrat Party's core has not made Blacks advance in the North of the Country.

The former Urban League Director Vernon Jordan expressed his concerns during Carter's presidency: "We have no full employment policy. We have no welfare reform plan. We have no national health system. We have no urban revitalization project. "We have no aggressive affirmative action policy. We have no solutions to the grinding problems of poverty and discrimination."

Republicans, which, distracted by the appearance of Barry Goldwater, who practically destroyed the Party's relationship with the Blacks by denouncing the Civil Rights Act as illegal, confirmed the beginning of the Black voters' migration to the Democrat Party at that time.

Bill Clinton cemented the alliance, and the rise of Barak Obama definitively helped with racial approval, although he never did anything meaningful to help his race. He instead helped Islam advance, while his Town of Chicago sunk in a pool of drugs and crime, actually on the rise!

President Trump changed those dark days, and employment among Blacks before the Pandemic, which is not an economic problem, but a health crisis managed to show the best Black's engagement ever registered, of course, before the COVID-19 forced the country to close.

96 -Mainstream Media's Obsession To Defeat Trump.

The word 'fake' became common, and the news is bound to it. It seems that the word 'reality' is losing weight, and from the daily stated 'fake news,' we realize the Press and TV Networks want us to live in a fantasy world.

Although the Media defend itself from the President and his supporters' accusations, there is substantial doubt about their arguments.

Mainly, after over three years of charges, accusations, suspicions, and false indications of the "Russian Collusion" with the Trump Campaign, there is no proof of being real.

In a desperate attempt to feed those allegations daily, the DNC, helped by the Mainstream Media, continued a mad campaign trying to dismiss the President's Administration.

The MSM has decided to ignore the truth and keep repeating the word liar, attached to President Trump's anything.

It is like a deaf people's conversation.

So, liar, liar, liar, repeated a thousand times might become real, as Nazi Joseph Goebbels used to affirm.

The addition of some possible "Obstruction of Congress" used to fabricate a wishful Presidential impeachment has poured fuel to the fire that keeps the Media blabbing about nothing.

Simultaneously, the Democrat leadership insists on continuing the Impeachment effort even after the Senate acquitted the President.

In a grave mishandling of the actual news, CNN, MSNBC, CBS, ABC, Univision, and the major newspapers have almost ignored the recent Islamic Radical Terrorist attack in Manchester, UK, as well as other Islamist Terrorist attacks around the World.

They are also elevating the chief terrorist Qassim Suleimani, Master of Iran's Intrigue, to a martyr, denying Trump his victory over Radical Islamic terrorism. They are now trying to link President Trump to the "father of Iran's nuclear bomb," Mohsen Fakhrizadeh assassination.

Undoubtedly they praised Obama for killing Osama Bin Laden, although he slaughtered about 3.000 people while Suleimani murdered hundreds of thousands of Americans.

Meanwhile, they continue to pound with the illusory elaboration of allegations about the now-famous hoax, the "Russian Collusion" with the Trump Campaign.

In contrast, they do not investigate the real collusion between Democrats, Hillary Clinton, and the Russians correctly.

In a desperate attempt to feed those accusations daily, the DNC, aided by the MSM, continues a mad campaign trying to mud President Trump's Administration.

The DOJ shows that the Mueller's "investigation," now finished, after three years of interviews, has not shown any evidence of Americans' wrongdoing.

They maintain the same results as before: No proof, nothing substantial, and definitively no evidence to add to the subject.

Mueller, under the Law, quietly released the final report of the investigation to the Attorney General, William Barr. He, in turn, after ascertaining that State secrets were not divulged or endangering any person mentioned in it, could publish it or not, at his discretion, what he considered public and even Congress could learn. That is the Law.

The Media has gone Postmodern Liberal all the way, and it is even obstructing the people from learning the truth. The Liberal Journalists have embarked on open war against the President and the White House staff.

This fact is enormously aggravated by several leaks from the White House, by old holdover bureaucrats left by the Obama Administration. They have engaged in unfair inside espionage and disbursement of classified information to the Media.

Unfortunately, the publication of classified data is not a crime, although obtaining said data is a punishable offense.

So the Media can publish the unfairly obtained information, damage the Government's plans, and in many cases, jeopardizing lives in the Secret Service and other Security Agencies.

The New York Times has repeatedly breached the rules. It seems they are using the so-called "undisclosed sources" as an alibi to publish doubtfully obtained classified information, which becomes legal after washed by the "intermediate" intervention of the unfaithful Obama's holdover bureaucrats. It is sad and unpatriotic.

Keep in mind that it is practically impossible to fire a public official due to some government's old laws.

The New York Times, Washington Post, other large newspapers, the Press Agencies, and many Internet Blogs and Google contribute to alternative news daily, many of them fake. Others come from "undisclosed sources" nowadays, a favorite way to hide or dismiss the origin and integrity of the information they publish.

These events contribute to an increasing loss of faith in the Press and TV news by the American people.

The known mantra that keeps the Postmodern Liberal movement going is "equality" or "diversity."

It is a questionable assertion, as performer Kathy Perry commented after the killing of 22 young children in the Manchester, UK venue by an Islamic Terrorist: 'No Barriers, No Borders, We All Just Need to Co-Exist.' Is this even real? Do the Radical Islamic faith followers think the same?; Of course not.

Consult history books, especially on the XVII and XVIII century, and learn what Islam's real goal is, especially the Radical branch, and the controversy with our Constitution. (See this book's Foreword)

Moreover, the fading performer Madonna, saying publicly: "Many times I thought to place a bomb in the White House."

In other countries, people go to jail or get executed for less than that.

99 -Co-Existence But With An Order.

There is no doubt, we all should co-exist on this Planet, but a Borderless World is not yet a viable reality. People are not all prepared and educated for that.

The USA is the potential big loser if that would happen.

Nevertheless, the Media insist on deviating from the subject. Instead of spreading the news as they come, they continue their agenda, mainly seeing President Trump as a "trial President."

The prestigious Journalist Bob Woodward, renowned for bringing the Nixon's Watergate case to the front pages, talked about the subject.

Mr. Woodward, a moderated Liberal, just labeled the Journalists as "smug," criticized the US Media for falsely labeling Mr. Trump Presidency "temporary." Mr. Woodward also described it as a state of "hyperventilation."

"I think there are so many people treating the Trump presidency as if it is a tryout or as if it is provisional," Woodward said. "Odds are, he is probably going to be president for a full term, four years, maybe even more."

During the Trump Administration tenure, the Media has occupied the airtime with 97% of an anti-Trump campaign. Their panels are a 9 to 1 rate of anti-Trump pundits, and the vitriol is abundant on their political shows, as we have not seen ever before. The absence of Conservative pundits or commentators on CNN, MSNBC, CBS, ABC, and major Newspapers, is disgusting, unfair, and unpatriotic.

It is an obsession, a fanatical fixation with a daily increase due to the frustration of not advancing on the allegations or adding any proof to the so-called "Russians Collusion" or the failed Impeachment hoax.

It could be hilarious if it were not pathetic.

Both the Mainstream Media and the Postmodern Liberal Movement are trying to impose the notion that a blanket of diversity and equality should cover the whole World, allowing flattening the human race and ignoring the natural values and virtues. Precisely, the flunked thought of Marx and Engels.

The idea seems to be, having a mass of people rejoicing in their mediocrity, happy with an absence of competition at any level.

The Mainstream Media, with its heavyweight influence, is adding fuel to the fire by dangerously twisting the information they provide to the American People. Fake News!

The COVID-19 Pandemic is undoubtedly ending the unsuccessful Globalization. It was a good try, ill applied, unfair, and premature.

The Planet is not prepared yet for such an idea. Maybe we could try in a century or more. We should not forget humans inhabit and rule our World. With Lenin's help, Marx and Engels dismissed human beings and their dreams of personal achievements, emotions, love, hate, but principally Karma. We cannot change those—God-given gifts.

However, here is a paradox: The corporations with Liberal leadership undoubtedly employ the crop's cream, not by equality but by excellence.

The practice is not questionable. However, the point is that not everything is about "equality," since competition is a choice, especially at the top — something Postmodern Liberals hate but frequently take advantage of it.

At home, Democrats and the Mainstream Media are trying to ignore the facts.

Instead, they continue to insist on the ill-famous "collusion with the Russians." After more than three years of investigations, they displayed no evidence of its existence and the Impeachment hoax.

Postmodern Liberals have assumed the political leadership in the Democrat Party, embraced by weak leaders. They, lacking attractive programs to move forward, rely on leftist grassroots activists to campaign against President Trump.

The Mainstream Media news concentrates their airtime on 97% dedicated to accusing the President's wrongdoing campaign, falsely.

In comparison, only 3% of their airtime they use to informing of the President's International or National successes and the message he is delivering to the people, so essential to the World's peace and the recovering of the US old lost prestige under previous Administrations.

The White House suspended Press Conferences for eight months, harshly criticized by the Media.

Now attending the Pandemic, the President and his technical team hold extensive daily conferences where the President answers journalist questions for hours.

But several 'journalists,' including MSNBC Rachel Maddow, suggest that Trump is using those events to enhance his political campaign; she says Networks should not air them. Indescribable dishonesty.

So, Trump stopped that modality and is trying something else.

Political Correctness is far more critical to the Media than the President's restoring the USA prestige and the political weight in the International scene.

They do not want the President to succeed.

They hate that idea.

Meanwhile, Barak Obama has resurfaced and keeping lying, throwing dirt at President Trump.

Obama also criticized Hispanic voters, accusing them:

"There's a lot of evangelical Hispanics who, the fact that Trump says racist things about Mexicans, or puts undocumented workers in cages, they think that's less important than the fact that he supports their views on gay marriage or abortion." He accuses Trump of putting illegals in cages while not mentioning that his Administration started the trend, and Trump is trying to stop it. Obama himself ordered to cage illegals.

102 -White Male Supremacy Syndrome.

102-Sanctuary Cities And Illegal Immigration.

Postmodern Liberals are trying, by all means, to make being white male a sin, 'horrible individuals that eat children alive, rape women and suck their blood, something out of this World, and unwelcome.'

They propagate hatred against Whites in Universities, Colleges, Schools, and on the streets of cities that support the arguably Sanctuary status, by the way, misinterpreted.

Sanctuary cities are supposed to offer shelter to illegal immigrants, who are afraid that Homeland Security and the INS could break up their families and unfairly deport some of its members, never to protect criminals.

It is surreal that said "Sanctuary Cities/States Law" would go against the country's Federal immigration legislation in such a controversial way.

The Mainstream Media, beginning with the Associated Press, changed its AP Stylebook to provide an exception, trying to modify the rules.

They wrote: "Except in direct quotes essential to the story, using the word illegal only to refer to an action, not a person: illegal immigration, but not an illegal immigrant." It is pure speculation.

We believe if someone enters the USA, violating the immigration laws, it becomes an illegal alien; A cause and effect.

If you do not like the Law, ask Congress to write a new one, but meanwhile, we must observe the current legislation.

Then, major U.S. newspapers such as the Chicago Tribune, the Los Angeles Times, and USA Today adopted similar guidance.

"The New York Times style guide similarly states that the term illegal immigrant may be considered "loaded or offensive."

Moreover, journalists frequently 'decorate' the rule to the particular circumstances of the person in question or to focus on actions: "who crossed the border illegally; who overstayed a visa; who is not authorized to work in this country." All the cases mentioned here became "illegal aliens," and those "journalists," I challenge them to try staying "undocumented" in Iran, North Korea, China, or any other World country, including Mexico, and see if they could write a story about their experience. The Media is a significant contributor to the establishment of the Postmodern Liberal culture or New Liberal Politics, forcing changes accordingly with their personal views of the Laws.

At this point, we all know that written laws are, nowadays, manipulated like chewing gum.

Such practice is similar to "Legislating from the bench." (As it is the case with Judges who do not interpret the Laws as written).

Some journalists try to fabricate opinions and applying them to laws from their pens or pixels.

Meanwhile, nobody checks, and modern Judges, especially Liberals, are so political that their rulings are scary.

The result is a gross misapplication of legislation and a constant fight between the Federal and the Municipal Governments (including the City's dependent Police Departments).

Disobedience, citations of Constitutional Laws, Local Laws, and all kinds of resources are part of a fierce battle.

The absurd "Defund the Police" movement has proved a crazy idea. Many Mayors, supporters in the past of such craze, are now asking the Police for help. Meanwhile, Biden is trying to convince people that he never supported it.

Lies, lies, lies.

Meanwhile, some pro-illegal organizations assist people who enter the USA without the necessary documents to appear as legal, while they are not, and coaching them to claim asylum falsely.

At this point, I remember something I learned years ago. Possession is 9/10 of the Law. In this case, the practice also becomes nine-tenths of the Law. Moreover, that is what Postmodern Liberals are doing, especially in the Immigration case. Once people are inside our land, it is tough to deport them. Liberal lawyers have mastered the Constitution's manipulation on the issue.

The leniency that started around the nineteen-eighties has allowed a population of between twenty-five and thirty million people to stay in the USA without the proper documentation, whose majority is doing paid work. Also, millions of illegal aliens are taking advantage of the Social Security System, supported by taxpayers.

Some of them are paying a minimum amount of taxes, hoping that it could be of some help to obtain a green card and eventually citizenship one day.

From the human point of view, one can only feel sorry for the people affected. Nevertheless, from the Constitutional perspective, if we do not enforce the Constitution, then the US stops being a Republic since what it makes a Republic is the observance and application of the Constitution.

The problem has turned to a tacit invasion that has forced the President to declare a "National Emergency" after Congress denied him 5.7 billion dollars to build a southern wall.

We need to stop the flow of drug cartels and caravans from Central America; they bring crime, diseases, and some needy people.

Fortunately, due to President Trump and his team's extraordinary efforts, the Caravans stopped for now. The Senate and the Military helped, and Mexico's President sent 27.000 soldiers to the border to help us.

On the other hand, most undocumented people have jobs, and they contribute their skills to the successful development of business.

Depriving the business owners of those employees would be devastating for them and their families too. So, it is a big problem not easy to solve. The country needs some of those immigrants. However, an uncontrolled flow becomes an invasion, and that seems to be the case at present.

Back in 1974, for instance, when I arrived in the US, there was stricter control of immigration, and except for some rare cases, the enforcement of the laws was tight and kept order.

In part, because of the farmer's need for cheap labor to harvest their crops seasonally, they were allowed to bring temporary workers, called "braceros" or "pickers" from Mexico.

The State governments looked the other way and said practice generalized to the point of "convenience" and that American citizens did not want to perform such work, moreover, for low pay under the minimum wage.

Consumers also looked the other way because that practice made possible much lower produce prices in the supermarkets. Today, with harvesting machinery widely used, doing most of that work, those "pickers" are hardly needed.

However, the "coyotes" or illegal aliens' smugglers took advantage of the leniency and, together with the aspirant laborers entering the US, began smuggling drugs, making the southern border a corrupted place several thousand miles long.

They made the Southern frontier the most dangerous permeable border where the Drug Lords and also terrorists have a free pass to enter the USA.

Today, with the Coronavirus Pandemic, the danger increased exponentially, although the traffic between countries slowed down a lot.

What began with a convenient under the table deal then developed into a major headache.

The Obama Administration refused to face the truth, and the 44th President directed the Border Patrol to wash their hands.

They ordered them to "catch and release," which in reality means, 'do not even bother with the illegal aliens.'

No other country in the World has such an insane immigration practice that violates its immigration laws.

Very few people think that many undocumented workers are taking jobs from American Citizens or lowering wages.

It is also true that the country needs many of those people.

Because undocumented migrants offer their services for less money, they get no workers-comp or health benefits.

However, under the table payments and other secretive deals open a way to illegal accounting methods and cheating on taxes.

As we can see, the problems have engrossed, and there are winners and losers. Too much is too much.

We need to enforce the Federal laws, which was one of the issues featured in Trump's campaign; To be a country of Law and Order again.

The USA is a country of immigrants, undoubtedly, but how many is the limit?

When journalists ask undocumented people's advocates, nobody wants to answer, not even think of the question. How many immigrants are suitable for the country and its population, especially the illegal?

TV Anchor Tucker Carlson frequently asks his guests the question, but nobody has answered it to date.

Throwing a figure is tricky. Maybe the market itself will set the number accordingly with the offer and demand, a proven working equation.

However, the two sides must agree for that to happen, which seems to be almost impossible to achieve at this time.

Maybe one day, when we all mature.

So far, some estimates are indicating there are about 30 million illegal aliens in the USA.

Meanwhile, Democrats insist on open borders, believing that the new illegal immigrants will prefer to vote for them.

Would this be true? Not in my opinion.

107 -The Trump Era.

The Postmodern Liberal leader's utter ignorance, or the lack of concern for the results, other than beating the Conservatives, is hard to believe. It shows their leadership is so confused that they cannot identify what makes the Left, the Left, Fascism, and other political and social concepts, frequently wrongly mentioned or geared to mislead people.

The confusion is outrageous, and the adjectives utilized are mostly in disarray. The actors' complete ignorance is crucial.

The Democrat Party is without a visible head (Biden is only the puppet on the front stage). We believe the leadership is like a "blob," inconsistent, ever-changing in a constant fight for political power, where the money is the main issue. The High-Tech industry is financially successful enough to provide with ruthless leadership, where their addiction to low salaries, slave working conditions in China, and now attempting to make the USA a similar setting. They keep pushing for hiring foreigners, preferentially Indians and Chinese, at much lower rates than they pay Americans.

Unfortunately, Senator Mike Lee, a Republican, is the author of a new Law that helps hire those individuals. Shame on him!

The President-elect has not specified his eventual Administration plans of Government. His peculiar electoral campaign from his home's basement was too protected, not allowing any hard-core questions from Conservative journalists. In sum, people voted Biden, attending calls from the Media demonizing President Trump for three and a half years. Just like a herd of sheep.

They still lack a plan and continue to throw dirt to the President, while Biden is choosing his staff entirely from individuals who worked in the Obama-Biden Government. It seems the aim is to have a third Obama Administration period.

Biden is only worried about assembling the most Diverse, intersectional Cabinet ever.

Would that assure the "best Cabinet?" Not, in my opinion. The different philosophies and backgrounds will be a significant headache if ever enable.

A BRUTAL ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY

CHAPTER 3

109 -A Virus Made In China.

Among the thousands of items China makes and ships to the US, the Communist Government's irresponsible behavior sent us the COVID-19, with the dangerous consequences that are killing hundreds of thousands of Americans in fragile health conditions and some young, as well as people all over the World.

After the Chinese officials knew for months of the Virus decimating thousands of their own people in Wuhan, they allowed millions of travelers to go to the USA and Europe by airplanes and ships.

While the Government of China acknowledges 83,000 people infected initially, some witnesses from the Hubei Province estimate the amount over the one million victims of the Virus, and above 60,000 deaths. The figures released by officials are not trusted, so it is practically impossible to know the actual truth.

The Communist Government is, as usual, lying to us, hiding the status of the extremely contagious strain, and covered their casualties. They also destroy all data indicating the beginning of the crisis now where or how it started.

In January, the United States offered medical help to the Chinese Government, sending a team of scientists experts on infectious diseases as soon as they learned about the first cases. Still, they refused any help and prohibited any Americans from entering the Wuhan City region, the Virus's source; Furthermore, the Communist Government expelled two journalists from the New York Times and The Washington Post.

They also punished some of their own journalists and scientists for revealing some information about the novel Virus. The Doctor who initially blew the whistle about the Coronavirus's existence disappeared, and at present, is considered missing. No one seems to know what happened to him.

Also, they hid all information about the novel Virus and deleted all data about the spreading of the COVID-19.

Recently, a University in China, owned by the Government, published a notice prohibiting the publication of any study or research about the Coronavirus unless Beijing authorizes it.

Communist regimes are well known for their secrecy and misguidance of all aspects of their Government.

This case is not different, and still today, it is impossible to trust the data they release and how many people are infected with the Virus.

They lie consistently to hide any information that could lead to possible criticism of their totalitarian ruling style.

Fortunately, their action was minimized by President Trump's quick action, in the middle of January 2020, banning traveling in and out of China to our country, later extended to Europe, after European nations had troubles controlling the infectious disease.

President Trump saved thousands of American people's lives by such an action, said Dr. Antony Fauci, the worldwide leading expert advising the Trump Administration on the Subject.

Nevertheless, today, the Media still criticizes Trump for not having issued an order of "social distancing" in February, when the President banned traveling with China. At the time, the whole Media labeled the President as "Racist," including Joe Biden.

Meanwhile, Democrats were fully engaged in the infamous "Impeachment." As a reminder, in mid-February, most Democrat Governors were against a Social distance or separation.

The Media's hatred for Trump is hard to understand. Well, they are rooting for the Democratic Party.

They hate Donald J. Trump.

Meanwhile, China's Communist Government mounted a worldwide propaganda campaign to blame the USA Military for 'having carried the Virus to Wuhan City.' A blatant lie our President said it is despicable, adding: "that will not happen in my Presidency," referring to the intentional smearing of our Military.

The Chinese Government claims that everybody should thank the Asians for "saving the World" from a worse situation.

Independent information delivered the following data:

"The 84 cremating furnaces in Wuhan City, with 11 million people, are working 24/7. The manufacturers are delivering 2,500 urns every day to funeral houses."

"Seven funeral homes in Wuhan have handled 3,500 urns with ashes every day in one week, claim some posts on Chinese social media.

Besides, they had told families who lost members under the Coronavirus that, at the festival of "Qin Min," that started on March 23rd, ending on April 5th, were trying to "complete cremations" before the traditional 'grave-tending' festival ended."

A local estimate shows that they were delivering about 45,000 urns during that time.

Another resident of the Hubei Province, where Wuhan is the Capital, said that more than 40,000 died during the lockdown time. That is tens of thousands more than what the Government acknowledges at that time.

Today, the estimate is much higher.

Other zone residents say that the Government is paying 3,000 Yuans in cash, equal to 433.00 dollars, to keep the families quiet and avoid mourning their deaths publicly.

Everything leads to thinking the Communist Government headed by Xi Jinping continues to lie big time, hiding the reality of lives lost because of the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Communists have always been experts to mount propaganda machines to exonerate them from wrongdoings, lying, and misguiding the World.

However, nobody doubts that COVID-19 is "The Wuhan virus, Made in China."

Chinese Virologist Dr. Li-Meng Yan Claims Coronavirus Lab 'Cover-Up' Made Her Flee China and seek for USA's political asylum. She denounced the Chinese Communist regime for purposely spreading the Coronavirus for political and economic gain. Although not providing hard evidence, her assertion comes from a reputed scientist linked to the Wuhan science community and directly involved with the Virus itself.

In the past, similar cases have taken the names of the regions where they originated, E.g.: Ebola, Spanish Flu, MERS (Middle East Respiratory Syndrome), Asian Flu, etc. Therefore, naming the Virus after the region where it started is not racial or unfair.

It is merely a fact.

Time and investigations on the issue will reveal some details, although we will never know the actual truth; This case is no different from other Chinese mishaps. However, by information collected around the World, actions of the Chinese Government, and recent declarations from Chinese officials, the Chinese Government enjoys the gains from the COVID-19.

The Chinese regime is totalitarian, without a free press, and granting no citizen's freedom or civil liberties.

112 –Merging Of Ideologies.

Postmodern Liberalism has a history tightly linked to the Left.

However, traditional Liberalism was rarely a "political party," although they were always a "sidekick" attached to different traditional governing groups or opposition, like an adjective to the Subject.

We can track Liberalism to four centuries ago. Still, in the late 19th Century, after the French Revolution, Classical Liberalism argued for a minimal size Government and individual freedom for action, almost a US Republican Party paradigm.

They aimed to allow individuals to develop themselves freely, although slowly.

Then, it gradually mutated into a center-left-wing movement, which with the times went so far to the Left that encountered the far-Right and melted with it in a Fascist mode. Its development is quite confusing.

Lefty Liberals only began to make in-rows into the US through the Socialist/Communist frenzy that invaded South America in the late 1940s.

Simultaneously, in Hollywood, 'the infamous ten motion-picture producers, directors, and screenwriters' who appeared before the House "Un-American Activities Committee" in October 1947 refused to answer questions regarding their possible communist affiliations, and some went to jail for Contempt of Congress.

A long time has passed, and a considerable change in demographics and political philosophy occurred. After the 2016 election, it mutated into Postmodern Liberalism, a hybrid mixture of many different and controversial ideologies, sharing a common enemy: Conservatism.

The shift is a political maneuver trying to recover the power lost by Democrats in the 2016 election. That is what we call a hijack.

The most outrageous is probably the utilization of violent Fascist techniques at rallies, showed by the organized groups, "Antifa" and "Black Lives Matter." They focus on depriving the Conservatism of the free expression granted in the First Amendment, in contrast with the fierce defense of the same First Amendment by Classic Liberals, led by students and professors at the University of California, Berkely in the 1960s. What a change of direction!

113 -The Mutation Of The Left.

We can locate the birth of the Left at the French Revolution 1789-1799, as the anti-monarchists' Montagnard and Jacobin, deputies from the Third Estate, sat to the left of the presiding member's chair in the parliament.

The leftist movement took birth to oppose the French Monarchy and all European Blue Blood ruling.

This habit, which began in the Estates-General of 1789, solidified after the 1848 Revolution. Few people supported it at the time.

However, the influential Communist Manifesto authored by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, published in 1848, pointing to the class struggle, predicted that a proletarian revolution would eventually overthrow bourgeois capitalism and create a classless, stateless, post-monetary Communist Society.

At that moment, Left and Right's political terms were also established in the USA, although they remained the property of specific small intellectual groups.

The Marx-Engels manifesto theorized about how to reach a classless and stateless society. Both authors asserted without considering the actual human condition, passions, greed, ambitions, talents, virtues, intellectual capacity, and so many attributes and negative qualities that are not easy to define, although they are real.

114 -Vedic Knowledge. Karma.

Marx and Engels's most neglected issue was Karma, not widely known or even acknowledged, especially in the West and Eastern European land at the time.

Of course, in time, Karma has been accepted as the essential spiritual issue in a person's life by revealing the Vedic knowledge spread across the philosophical and academic circles in the United States and Western World.

However, neither the authors of the Communist Manifesto deemed humankind's future development, which holds an awful controversy within the Postmodern Liberal Movement, hard to decipher.

The Communist philosophy lines got severely blurred and confused by the advance of science and technology, which turned many trades and occupations obsolete, leaving the new groups without a particular side — Left, center, or right.

Marx, Engels, and then Lenin, who was the strategist for the Communist ideology application, lacked basic Philosophical knowledge, especially about the spiritual life.

Their studies and developments were utterly materialistic and completely ignoring the spirit soul, its existence, and, therefore, its consequences and extent.

Their only superficial philosophical knowledge strived on the speculations of the highly materialistic German and French philosophers.

The great Albert Einstein was the exception, confirmed by his vast understanding of Vedic Literature and philosophy.

Einstein's famous expression:

"God does not play dice with the universe." It is self-explanatory of Albert's thoughts about God.

(We will expand on the Vedic knowledge in a future chapter.)

Therefore, as time passed and the regular changes happened, Marx and Engel's speculation about life in society became obsolete for many.

The technological discoveries, advances, and inventions took their uncertain theories about the classist society and the optimal solution by surprise and turned them absurd.

Moreover, what to say about the inexorable coming of a "Robotics Era," turning millions of human jobs unnecessary.

115 -Technology Advances Changed Communism.

The factories, a primary worker's symbol and bloody battlefield to defend their rights, are nowadays automatized, in alarming development replacing humans with robots, mostly doing a more thorough and efficient job.

If we were to follow the Marx and Engels Communist predictions, we probably had missed most of the great inventions that have enhanced our lives in the last one hundred and fifty years. The new generations could not survive without them.

It is impossible to stop scientific and technological knowledge.

They are part of humankind's development.

It is not deniable that the Marxist ideas became fashionable and even fanatical, at the time, bringing a division among people in many countries around the World.

Communism became violent with the Bolshevik Revolution, then exported it throughout the World. Their bloody battles we all have heard or knew throughout history have left a disastrous, deadly mark. History is telling it as it happened.

Communism has left a horrific balance:

"History shows one hundred and thirty million deaths, plus in the hands of Communism, until the end of the XX century."

We must acknowledge that Russia, later the USSR was a special place with unique problems of wealth distribution, misery, famine, and a corrupt aristocracy, decrepit, and worn out.

However, Marx and Engels' Communist ideology rather than a permanent theory, today, we see it was a temporary and incidental shift that provoked a primary worker's awareness and changed the private owner/worker relationship in Russia for the worse. Nevertheless, Totalitarianism, a government system that is centralized, dictatorial, and requires complete subservience to the State, remained the foremost choice of authoritarianism enthusiasts.

At the beginning of the nineteenth Century, the business owners oppressed workers; working conditions were poor and, in many cases bordering on slavery.

So, Communism raised awareness and, in a way, helped, later on, to correct some of the problems or at least to recognize them, although the human lives price paid was excessively inhuman.

However, Communism did not improve the people's life quality and only transferred the abuse of workers from the private sector to the State.

The USSR Communism treated peasants and laborers like slaves. China's Communist present ruling reinforces the fact. Worker's oppression, a lack of free press, and suppression of liberties are the evidence.

However, consider that Chinese born under the Communist ruling don't know what Democracy is.

So, they are contented with the system because they don't know different. Subjects believe the State and its Government are taking good care of the people.

History says:

Socialism and Communism Have Never Made a Worker Happier.

The Communist State and the Oligarchy are much worse bosses than Monarchy was.

Communism killed more than 130 million people in the Twenties Century.

Also, the corruption among the leaders exponentially increased and spread out, creating favoritism for the Oligarchs. They immediately side with the Government officials that grant all contracts to the "businesses supporting the Communist System," making Oligarchs an essential part of Communism.

They handle the money and grease the palms of corrupt officials.

(That also occurred in Nazi Germany, where the Industrial Titans helped construct the Third Reich (1933-1944) and grossly profited from it.)

A Royalty, anti-democratic system replaces the totalitarian rule named Communism, a much worse option.

The Latin American Continent, but especially the South American part of it, since the 1940s, had a love affair with Socialism and Communism thru the intellectual community.

At the end of Nazism in Germany, the favorite places where the Nazi elite chose to hide and plant new roots were in South America: Argentina, Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay, and Chile.

Also, Nazism and Fascism have been a powerful aid to propagating that political ideology in the USA. We must recall those are totalitarian styles of Government.

Hitler, Stalin, and Mussolini were partners at some time.

A cloudy myth was forcing its way into the World's society.

The nature of the economy, and land distribution, inherited from Colonial times, has always been an issue of discordance.

Criticism about land partition and assignment inequality has always been unclear, causing Military clashes between countries and unrest among the populations.

At the beginning of the Twenties Century, several Latin American groups of discontent citizens began to gather, forming leftist cells that grew and propagated, connecting through political and underground organizations, many times clandestine, but all of them under the guidance of the Communist ideology, always financed by the USSR.

The "International Socialist" order in Europe and later the "Foro de Sao Paulo," in Brazil, an organization to offer guidance and support to the leftist groups in Latin America, was founded by Fidel Castro, the Cuban Dictator for over fifty years, and Lula Da Silva, former leftist Brazilian President among others. (Lula was lately indicted for corruption and jailed. Now freed from confinement)

Thru these types of channels, some of these leftist groups became formal Party's and convinced the embattled workers that they needed a change, and the Leftist was there to help them.

The Communist propaganda spread the false idea that the workers should be the government heads and the economy's rulers.

However, the generally poorly educated laborers proved to lack the necessary knowledge to handle such monumental tasks. They had to seek the help of the better educated and powerful Oligarchs.

Corruption rapidly took over, and the "Capitalists," now converted into "Oligarchs" (the new Capitalists in the Communist communities) with the support of the corrupt Lefty leadership, in conjunction with the authoritarian Military brass, assumed control of the economy.

USSR Communist leadership quickly confiscated the aristocratic Russian royalty's old properties, dachas, farms, factories, and other means of production, usurping the wealth creation sources, and imposed widespread corruption that they shared with the Military in control of the Communist Party. They established one Party-State. No opposition allowed.

The leftist leaders promised a Communist Paradise, a classless society with equality that was supposed to answer all the people's problems.

Communist propaganda invaded Latin America.

Almost all countries in the sub-continent began a love affair with the Left that ended with many having Socialist or Communist Governments; All of them disastrous in the end.

They were Influenced by Fidel Castro's Cuban Revolution, which through a false romanticism, gained fame and prestige among the intellectuals of the World, sick of the Cuban Dictator Fulgencio Batista's excesses, supported by a considerable part of US politicians and people in the business community.

The Communists took advantage of a historical moment when the Conservative movement exceeded its power by creating too many wealthy individuals who oppressed the factories and farmworkers.

Capitalists, Oligarchs, and other influential groups, which do not have shame nor political sides, and only go where the business is flourishing, quickly got behind the Socialist and Communist movements to "aid" their affairs, only changing hats in the Market of "managing the wealth."

The USSR acronym means Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The use of the word Socialist as a replacement of Communist when convenient for the leftist cause is evident.

The Left did not waste any time. Through the intellectual community's support, avid for changes but mainly charging against the all-time hated conservatives, found fertile ground in Latin America's embattled lower class in a pre-technological society.

Once again, the rich got richer and shared the profits with the Socialist/Communist politicians and military brass.

The slow region's development (Latin America) was the perfect laboratory to try building a new society, which Marx and Engels envisioned in 1848 when they wrote the Communist Manifesto.

Some European countries, absorbed by the USSR, had already put in practice Communism under the rule of the Soviets, although the results were somewhat disastrous.

Marx and Engels never figured out how to successfully manage Communism after they took power. They did not have the necessary vision to perceive the future or avoid corruption, maybe because they never considered the spirit soul as the center of the individual, feelings, talents, miseries, or Karma. They were gross materialists. Or maybe they counted on corruption as a totalitarian tool to control the masses? Hmm.

So, Latin America was next. The reckless, sometimes oppressive political system existent in the southern part of the American Continent offered a fertile ground where the seeds of Communism could have germinated and a political product harvested successfully.

The lack of South-American people's high education and spiritual knowledge did the rest.

Meanwhile, in the USA, politicians finally acknowledged the real threat of Cuba's Communism under Fidel Castro, especially after the Russian missiles reached the Island, and pointed them toward the US mainland, followed by President Kennedy's reaction, which almost ended in a nuclear war with the USSR.

The South-American local worker's unions gained prestige among the country's populations. People were beginning to evaluate a radical change that could improve the new workers' living conditions: Communism.

The greed and reckless behavior of local Latin-American Right-Wing politicians opened a straightforward way for some needed changes, and the "Communist philosophy," until then feared and rejected, became an option to be considered.

The People's question in their minds was: "What about if we change government styles?" The actual State of their economies was pretty bad, and although the top-rated raw product coming out of the South-American land fed the entrepreneurs' 1%, they did not share with their workers in a fairway or any way.

The complaints were loud, and the upper-class individuals disregarded them, enjoying visible excesses on numerous European and North American personal shopping tours and a lavish life at home. The workers had a lousy existence, overworked and underpaid; many times hungry and sick.

"The core of the Communist philosophy calls for the annihilation of Capitalism, to the point where over the ruins, they would start building an entirely new Communist Paradise."

A vast array of small clandestine lefty movements appeared all across Latin America, mainly with members that, after some training trips to Cuba, returned to their countries, formally converted into Leftist's subversives fighters, or "urban terrorists."

121 -The USSR Influence In Latin America.

The USSR had a significant impact on the Uruguayan group of Urban Terrorists named Tupamaros, the first of its class worldwide.

USSR Montevideo's Embassy had a side door on the premises, dedicated to free traffic, allowing a constant flowing of some selected individuals, identified as Communist militants, definitively working full time; some were on the Embassy's clandestine payroll.

The Communist ideologists had chosen the tiny, although most prestigious South American country at the time to be the base for the Latin American spreading of Communism and an eventual penetration into the USA.

The Uruguayan Government, not used to this kind of opposition, in disarray by the continuous criminal acts increasing by the days, adopted some military measures that took some time to become active.

By 1972, the terrorist movement collapsed, although, in the previous year, the MLN-T (Tupamaros) managed to legally establish a Political Party they named Frente Amplio (Broad Front).

However, after a few years of urban guerrilla activities, most of the Tupamaro's leadership went to jail. Others escaped to European Countries, taking with them a large booty they had amassed from the criminal acts performed in Montevideo, the Uruguayan Capital, and other Uruguayan cities.

They were robbing banks, businesses, kidnapping people for ransom, and other illicit acts.

A few years later, those funds helped the Left win an election and access the Uruguayan Government, which lasted 15 years. Finally, another election act, in 2018 ousted the disastrous Leftist ruling.

But, for some time, the smallest, although at the time, most educated South-American country, became an essential pillar of the Lefty political establishment in the continent. Unfortunately, Socialism's ruling practically destroyed the economy, social fabric, and Republican infrastructure in the past, many called "the Switzerland of America."

Meanwhile, US Politicians completely disregarded the facts, paying little attention to the remarkable growth of the Left in their backyard, as they used to call Latin America.

We must acknowledge that in the USA, the Postmodern Liberal Movement was only in its beginning, influenced by the rise of Communism in the South-American land and the southern part of Central America, began the massive immigration of Latin Americans to the USA, mostly through Visa's overstay.

A large part of the undocumented immigrants from South and Central America came to the US carrying with them the seeds of Communism, implanted in their minds, and most of them, with hatred against the US in their hearts caused by Communist propaganda, and some US Government excesses throughout the World.

Although the new immigrants knew that living and working in the US was going to improve their lives and families, many of them had in mind to help the Left gain power in the Capitalist Empire.

US politicians had a hard time understanding that despite the good economic reasons the American Lifestyle offered. People outside the USA often regretted the American way of doing business. Distrust of the Capitalist system, through some Multinational Corporations, which cooperated with South American corrupt politicians, was abusing the granted privileges, and exploiting the local labor force. The Left continually vilified those Corporations, placing negative propaganda on the streets.

So the usual cry in Latin-America: "Yankees go home," turned into "Do not bother, we will come to your land!"

Today, those who migrated to the US years ago have proved that while they significantly improved their lives, especially economically, seeing now that the families they left behind in their birth countries are currently going thru horrible times, hungry and suffering unbelievable penances. Venezuela is a clear example, but others like Uruguay, Argentina, Ecuador, Bolivia, Brazil, and Nicaragua, are also symbols of the destruction caused by Socialism and Communism.

123 -Consistent Failure Of Socialism And Communism.

The Socialist/Communist experience has been catastrophic, and all countries that have experimented with leftist rulings have collapsed or on the way to collapse.

However, the Capitalist's Elite does not understand that somehow, Communism is a reaction to the excesses of Individuals in the Capitalist community. The excessive payments typically received by CEOs and some other high executives have no comparison to the compensation of the rest of those companies' employees; Something to think about it and correct.

Also, the exploitation of workers in other parts of the World, which includes children, practiced by some large corporations, like Sport shoe manufacturers, is a despicable example of human beings' abuse. It is understandable that in some regions of the World, families need children to have a job to help them to survive, but abusing minors is vile. Coincidentally, most of the factories where they make the products are in Communist countries.

Examples like Venezuela, in complete chaos despite having some of the largest oil deposits in the World, is one of them.

Venezuelan citizens are hungry, homeless, unable to obtain the necessary articles to healthy living, are now on the streets fighting the Government with their bare hands, without weapons, after a brutal dictatorship ruined their vast resources economy and confiscated their guns.

Again, the Vladimir Lenin Decalogue became fashionable, and they confiscated the people's weapons!

Americans must defend the Second Amendment from Democrats who want to take it away. The Founding Fathers meant using guns to protect people against government excesses.

Cuba, the most notable Communist failure, is still under the more than sixty-year-old Castro family's dictatorship. The Island now has its first "Non-Castro family" President, although there was no change in politics.

The ouster of a leftist President in Argentina; is now back by after an electoral mistake.

The impeachment and removal of Brazilian President Dilma Rousseff and her corruption scandal, also the indictment of former President "Lula Da Silva," recently released from jail, has returned some of the South American countries to a kind of Democracy, not fully implemented yet, but promising.

The new Brazilian President, Jair Bolsonaro, emulates the Trump doctrine at the moment, and it seems to be obtaining success.

Other South American countries continue fighting for the shake-up of evil governments that have survived only because of their vast natural resources, despite the corruption established by the Left.

124 -The Lenin Decalogue.

A document called "The 1913 Vladimir Lenin's Decalogue," which some people say is a hoax, but because it is so accurate, painting an incredibly realistic picture on how to take over a country, looks and sounds truthful to many others and me.

The document makes people's skin creep. Said record has been around for decades and is the guidance for all the leftist movements in Latin America.

We have witnessed the disasters caused by these leftist guides on how to override any government and convert them into Left-wing. They always start with the same mantra: the Revolution, the defense of workers, women, the elder, together with a consistent attack on the "Yankee's Capitalism" and the Establishment.

South-American people, particularly the less fortunate, weak, and uneducated, have always been brainwashed by the Left and became staunch supporters of the Socialist and Communist Parties. Also, many lefty students go to Universities not to study but to engage in politics. Something I never expected to see in the USA, but is, unfortunately, today's reality and the Postmodern Liberal Movement's model strategy.

History, once again repeats itself.

The new immigrant youth in the USA is being indoctrinated with the same tools created by Marx and Engels, put in practice by Lenin, intensified by Mussolini's Fascism, and with some influence of Hitler's National Socialism. They all have a common denominator: Totalitarianism.

The Left in the USA has developed this powerful tool to brainwash the illegal immigrants coming from Latin America, as mentioned before, with their brains embedded in the Socialist/Communist myth. They keep saying that the leftist system is for the workers' defense, poor people's justice, and fairness when in real life, the only beneficiaries are the political leaders, Union bosses, the Military Brass, the Oligarchs, and their loyal, foolish unconditional followers.

Here is the famous Lenin's Decalogue, Lenin wrote in 1913:

"Manual to Seize Control of a Society," used in the 1917 Russian Re-Revolution (The October Surprise) usurping power from the original Russian Revolution, which occurred earlier in the spring of that year.

- 1. Corrupt the youth and give them absolute sexual freedom.
- 2. Infiltrate and take control of the mass communication media.
- 3. Divide the population into antagonist groups; encourage arguments between them over social issues.
- 4. Destroy the people's confidence in their leaders.
- 5. Talk all the time about Democracy and republic, but when the opportunity arises, seize power as a dictator.
- 6. Cooperate with the drainage of public funds, discrediting the country's image, especially overseas, and create panic within the population by launching an inflationary process.
- 7. Encourage strikes, even if they are illegal, in the country's key industries.
- 8. Promote riots while conspire to prevent intervention by law enforcement.
- 9. Cooperate actively in destroying the moral foundations of society, honesty, and trust in the Government's promises. Infiltrate other parties with your own people, forcing them to vote for what is useful to your own Party's interest.
- 10. Register everyone who has firearms to confiscate them when the time comes, preventing them from opposing your Revolution.

Notice: (The author only suggests the above's authenticity, knowing that many sources have questioned it as false. However, the contents are siding with Vladimir Lenin's philosophy and the Communist practices so, it could well be coming from his mind and pen.)

I am detailing these facts because, believe it or not; these continue to be the root of what nowadays is the propeller, part of the Postmodern Liberal Movement in the USA and Canada.

One must keep in mind the strong influence of Latin Americans or Hispanics in North America. Socialism entered the United States from Latin American revolutionary politics through illegal immigration and Cuba, although Cuban immigrants are mainly escapees from Castro's regime.

127 –China Awakes As Communism/State Capitalism.

It is all about power; Personal power, the ultimate human individual goal. Money is the vehicle, but power is the big and ultimate prize. Sometimes is personal; others collective, although a person is always at the top and in command.

Meanwhile, quietly but surely, in the last years of Mao Zedong, around 1978, China was developing what many Western commentators described as "State Capitalism."

They adopted a mixed system that keeps the center of Mainland China, where the farms and factories are strictly Communist, with the population surviving on the borderline, fighting famine.

More than 30 people usually sleep in the same small room, in miserable conditions. In contrast, in the coastal cities, some selected people enjoy 'Capitalist-like' enterprises in partnership with the Government, experiencing some exclusive "luxurious" privileges.

This kind of economic system allowed the Asian giant to rapidly developing a massive improvement in production, finances, and resources, where the naive US leaders fell into a trap.

Some previous leaders may have illegally benefitted from the Chinese's paybacks, as we later discovered. Joe Biden and his son Hunter are under grave suspicion to have profited unlawfully. The mainstream media continues to sweep the case under the rug. The abundant evidence presented by the "New York Post" was practically "killed" by Social Media and TV Networks. Twitter and Facebook banned all mentioning of the facts, and Google suppressed the newspaper's article immediately.

A few weeks after the article, a former Hunter Biden's partner Tony Bobulinski told his story, that also accused Joe Biden of participating and profiting from the venture on the Tucker Carlson Tonight's Show. Still, no other Media outlet even commented on the witness' declaration. Maybe Mr. Bobulinsky came out a little too late with the information. It was only a few days before the election.

Doing business with China presents a controversy.

On the one hand, the US consumers got the benefits of buying much more with their money in China, where the Communist regime exploits workers sinfully. At the same time, millions of Americans lost their jobs because thousands of local factories were closing or transferring their operations to the Chinese country. The Asian laborers earn a fraction of what the US pays its workers.

Most Americans fell in love with Chinese products because they offered low prices while delivering acceptable quality and American designs. Business people got greedy with the generous profits coming from the Asian Giant, and politicians began receiving contributions from the Asian Giant to their campaigns and some in their private accounts.

In addition to learning the Capitalism business, now owned by the Communist regime, the Chinese rapidly learned bribing and massively spread it around.

However, US business people still do not have full access to the tightly restricted Chinese Market.

Universities and their executives receive tremendous benefits from the Chinese Government while enrolling thousands of Chinese students in universities and colleges paying full tuition.

Some politicians are also profiting by participating in joint ventures or simply 'helping' the Chinese to expedite lucrative business in the US, utilizing their official positions in the Government.

That seems to be the case of Hunter Biden, who went around the World, including China, selling his father's influence as Vice President of the United States of America.

In 2017, President Trump denounced the dire situation and began imposing tariffs on some of China's imports to recover from the extremely disadvantageous trade balance, unfair to the USA.

As Mr. Trump often says: such a situation is not entirely

China's fault, but the foolishness and lack of business vision that some former US Presidents allowed to happen, especially Barak Obama-Joe Biden Administration. The presumptive incoming Government already seems to be "a third term Obama-Biden." The primary selection of Uncle Joe's cabinet indicates it.

Because of excessive regulations, high taxes, and other measures taken by the Obama Administration, the unbalance of trading with the Asian Giant grew disproportionately in detriment of our country, losing millions of jobs after thousands of factories moved to China.

Due to the actual health crisis, the declared Pandemic because of the COVID-19 or Coronavirus epidemic, we, Americans, sadly found a terrifying reality.

China commercially dominates the USA because our past leaders, mainly the Obama-Biden Administration, sold us out!

Maybe they did not know what they were doing, and forgot to look for us! Alternatively, perhaps they knew and did not care.

Politicians and Business people just saw the quick profit, got greedy, and bribed by the "Elite," and the Asian Communist Government betrayed us and gave-us-away to China.

"The USA Business Elite, especially Hig-Tech executives, has more in common with a totalitarian Communist government than with the US Constitution and the American People."

The Democrat Party Establishment at the beginning of the 2020 campaign encouraged candidates leaning to the political Left. Nevertheless, once Bernie Sanders won the first caucus and primaries, they realized that they were making a big mistake and rapidly decided to support Joe Biden massively, despite all the blunders and lack of coordination the former VP shows daily.

Let us remember that Bernie Sanders is not a "Democrat."

"Not one of us," as many Democrat contenders in the primaries, have said.

They made Biden the Democratic Party Nominee, endorsed by Barak Obama, in a quite timid way after a thunderous silence! Bernie also has in mind the old Communist philosophy, not the 'updated' format the Chinese are practicing with the addition of "State Capitalism." During the campaign, we heard Sanders still condemning Capitalism as an evil form of economic development. He got stuck in the 1960s Communism, at least in his discourse.

130 -Does The Biological War Begun, Yet?

Sources are now saying the Coronavirus came from a Lab in Wuhan, Province of Hubei, in China.

Curiously, the Lab, where they investigate and manipulate viral strains, is situated across a small pond from a large "Wet Market," where, as mentioned before, they sell all kinds of animals, wild and domestic, for food. In this Market, the vendors sell dead animals, or they kill the livestock crammed in small cages at the customers' request, in-situ.

The scene is gross and highly dangerous, displaying pieces of meat on top of each other, with insects flying and crawling as well as rodents and other predators around the place. One can imagine that the Virus, also transmitted by air, could have reached the Wet-Market and rapidly infected many of the products sold there, and therefore workers and customers. The Coronavirus seems to travel in tiny water droplets thru the air.

We can also imagine that some Lab employees already contaminated with the strain may have been the Market's customers and spread the Virus around.

We know that the first victim, a male employee of the Lab, infected his girlfriend, and she also spread the Virus around to others.

Of course, due to the hermetic silence the Chinese Communist Government exerts on their policies, these are all speculations.

However, there is a solid belief that China purposely developed this particular strain to compete with the USA.

The result went the wrong way, in part because of the policies of China's Government, and the lying and secrecy, especially in the first six days after they discovered the first cases, which allowed millions of people to travel to Italy, and the USA, carrying the strain, contaminating thousands more.

The whistleblowers, at least two of them, have disappeared, unable to be found. Also, the Communist Government of China destroyed samples and data, especially the first strain specimens and even the data concerning the testing or investigative work.

Some people even believe that it could have been a test on virus control, demonstrating the Chinese supposedly superiority over America on the matter. If that was the case, it was a catastrophic failure.

Although the Asian giant has developed some remarkable results in technology, infrastructure, and science; Still, because of its totalitarian Government, the expansion is not methodic, coordinated and observing social freedom, human rights, liberties, and especially a "Bill of Rights," similar to America.

They rule the country in an absolute totalitarian way, authoritarian and without granting any rights to the population. It is either you are with them (the Government) or against them. Moreover, if it is the latter, people are in real trouble, even losing their lives, as it commonly happens.

For people accustomed to living in the USA, it is a horrific scene. However, if you were born there, and you have not experienced it differently, you get used to being continuously watched and monitored. Humans adjust to all kinds of lifestyles.

Capitalism is not a perfect system. However, it is the best-known way to achieve happiness, to make some dreams come true, and to live in peace, enjoying, as our Pledge of Allegiance reads: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Unfortunately, the manipulation some Lawyers make of our Constitution is disgraceful, allowing some to disrespect our Flag, our National Anthem, and even the Constitution itself.

In my opinion, having experienced living under a Lefty ruling, I deeply reject the idea of having in the USA a Socialist Government. If we fall into such a trap, it will take many years of suffering under Socialist or Communist destruction to be able to go back to our roots. If we can reverse the course, the damage that Lefty governments would have done will be irreparable. I have seen many examples. It is devastating!

However, being under Socialism and Communism, which are the same, there is another type of ruling that is as bad or worse than it.

Islamic ruling is the other big menace to our freedom. Both are the worse enemies we are still facing, now associated with the Postmodern Liberalism that has hijacked the old Democratic Party.

I will expand on Islam in another chapter.

132 -How Communism Became A US Government Option.

We know Bernie Sanders, the Vermont Senator, and career politician who now calls himself "Democratic Socialist," since his youth is a fan and lover of Marx and Engels's political philosophy.

He praised Fidel Castro's Communist regime. Note that Socialism is not democratic at all.

Thru the years, he continues repeating the classic Communist rant over and over, which he knows so well, that echoes the same phrasing like a tolling bell.

His arguments are not new. Marx, Engels, Lenin, Stalin, and down the line, the rest of the Communist ideology established a series of slogans and issues that kept the Lefty propaganda untouched throughout the years.

It always starts with the workers' defense, condemnation of Capitalism, the Unions as the worker's strength, the need for a revolution, equality, and many others we all know: the Communist rhetoric building blocks.

For Bernie, those words defining the Communist Ideology myth, he is continuously reminding us for decades; they are the supposed marvels of the anti-Capitalism movement.

The American people, mostly uneducated and poor, still believe that the proposed system will bring them positive changes.

However, history says clearly, that it is the most incredible hoax politics has developed in the World's history.

There is no country on the Planet that, after applying the Communist or Socialist political system, the workers and poor people had benefitted from it. Not even one!

Only corruption, poverty, unemployment, and enriching the wrong people: Politicians, Military Brass, Union leaders, and Oligarchs; Moreover, Socialism is just one step away from Communism.

Sanders won the Nevada caucuses, he brags, with the "Latino votes." However, those Nevada Latinos are not coming from South America, and therefore, they lack the current knowledge of the Socialist disasters that left their families in distress. Those Hispanic immigrants are mostly ignorant of politics. They are only looking for "Free stuff from the Government," which Sanders is recklessly offering out of control, and that, if applied, will bankrupt our economy.

Looking at the last example of a Communist Government, China offers a clear picture of totalitarian, authoritative behavior. They keep their people under constant scrutiny and monitoring all their moves, with millions of cameras, government workers in charge of the surveillance, maintaining citizens inside a large prison within the Asian giant.

Contemporary slavery is the proper word to define the "Communist Paradise," as Marx and Engels describe it initially, and Mao Tse Dong imposed it in the land by force in 1949. Over forty-five million people died under the famous "Leap Forward," either assassinated, tortured, or victims of the Great Famine (between 1959-1961.)

Let us remember that Socialism emerged after the 18th Century Industrial Revolution that transformed mostly rural, agricultural societies in Russia and Europe into industrialized, urban ones. Earlier in 1789, the idea of Socialism appeared with the French Revolution but later solidified in the Marx-Engels Communist Manifesto of 1848.

Until then, goods that had been painstakingly crafted by hand started to be produced in mass quantities by machines in factories, thanks to introducing new machinery and techniques in textiles, steelmaking, and the beginning of technology.

Under Socialism, some labor leaders took advantage of the changes and began organizing Unions to assembly workers, promising to defend them from the factory owners who were abusing laborers, paying them little, and demanding unreasonable efforts. However, Communism does not encourage "Unions.'

Of course, for some, it was, in theory, the most magnificent idea ever. Communism must create a massive entity called State, perfect and spotless, managed by human beings in real life. It is hardly ideal and full of human defects and corruption.

Then, in 1848, Karl Marx, the German political philosopher and economist, became one of the most influential Socialist/Communist thinkers of all time.

Along came Friedrich Engels, with similar ideas to aid Marx. Together, they published in 1848 "The Communist Manifesto," which criticized those earlier socialist models as utterly "utopian" dreams, unrealistic and weak.

Marx affirmed that earlier Socialism lacked the strength and power necessary to take down Capitalism, bring it to rubles, and on top of the debris, constructing a "Communist Paradise,' where the State will own all businesses.

The establishment of Socialism then promoted the idea that workers should be under Government sponsorship, the factories' owners.

Marx Manifesto did not propose that people had the right to free education, healthcare, housing, and many other privileges. Those are additions by the western followers, Communist wannabes.

He mentioned abolishing private ownership in favor of State-owned, and all of it, administrated by a humongous Nation created to do the job.

In real life, Socialism is equal to Communism. The only difference is that while Socialism allows some individuals to own properties and small and medium businesses in partnership with Government, Communism keeps ownership of the land and all enterprises.

Nevertheless, today's Chinese Communism is allowing particular Private-Sate partnership.

Under Socialism, some countries have elections to choose Presidents and Congress members, while Communism allows only one Governing Party and has no polls because there is only one Party.

Sometimes they allow some electoral events to choose local authorities, although very rare and subordinated to the "one-party state."

The Chinese Government system imposed an innovation, creating what many call "State Capitalism," with Socialism on the coast, and Communism in the rest of the country, but all under the big umbrella of a totalitarian Central Government in Beijing, which owns all businesses and infrastructure.

When we think about how that system could be imposed in the USA, probably thinking it could be attractive, after two hundred and forty-some years of complete democratic elections and institutional freedom, really? Think again, please!

Marx argued that there was a history of class struggles in the past and that the working class (or proletariat) will inevitably triumph over the capitalistic class (bourgeoisie), finally wining control over the means of production, forever erasing all classes' problems.

Marx did not consider people's human nature, with their ambitions, desires, family, friendship, miseries, anxiety, and overall: Karma and spiritual life as an essential part of the individual.

His ultra totalitarian views considered humans as robots, born to work for the Government and die miserable, frustrated, without fulfilling or at least trying to achieve personal goals in search of happiness.

Here is where "the pursuit of happiness," embedded in the US Constitution and Bill of Rights, makes a big difference.

Marx and Engels dismissed that human beings are all different from each other and with diverse individual desires and rights accordingly with Karma.

136 -Communist Ideology Making In-Roads In The USA.

Greed is playing a role in the modern attempt to establish Socialism in the US. - Politicians are the main actors.

Little by little, we learn that many on both sides of the aisle are engaged in treason acts, receiving money primarily from China's Communist Government and other foreign powers.

Mike Bloomberg, the former NYC Mayor, is a vivid example. He admitted: "I have business with China. They set the rules, and if we do not follow them, then we are out of it!" That is an acknowledgment of complete submission to the authoritarian nature of State Capitalism.

Money is the only goal that turns the rest of the issues irrelevant, even patriotic feelings, to the United States of America.

That is, precisely, what is destroying Market Capitalism and our Country: Uncontrollable greed and a disdain for the Constitution and our lifestyle.

Billionaires could not care less about American Workers, and the Democratic Party glamorizes foreign workers' employment, legal or illegal. Simultaneously, they encourage local workers' replacement with the H-1B Visa holders coming mainly from India and China.

Prestigious Universities enjoy substantial contributions of funds in exchange for allowing a significant amount of Chinese students, paying full tuition and fees. Besides being part of the learning process, they steal and deliver critical information to the Chinese Government, mainly military and technological developments.

The amount of Chinese students enrolled in US Universities is continuously growing at an alarming pace.

Although the daily scene's peaceful appearance seems to be innocent, the reality is scary and dangerous. Thousands of Chinese spies keep sending our secrets to the Communist Government. The Democrat's rant helps them big time by glamorizing Bernie's political philosophy at the helm.

Prestigious universities are holding Billions of Dollars in Cash, received from Communist China and other governments as bribes to educate hundreds of thousands of Chinese students, which at the same time pay full tuition to them, personally.

There is no secret that the Chinese Government intends to dominate the World and displace the USA from its leadership on all fronts.

A questionable appropriation of some small islands in the South China Sea, where a massive military construction is underway, includes a large airstrip. Artificially, they are expanding the land.

Also, recently, the leasing of an entire island in the South Pacific Ocean, near Australia, concerns the US and its partners.

3.2 million people live in the South Pacific Island complex. These are Cook Islands, Fiji, French Polynesia, Kiribati, Marshall Islands, Micronesia, Nauru, New Caledonia, Niue, Palau, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tokelau, Tonga, Tuvalu, and Vanuatu.

The Chinese Communist Government is building a massive military complex that has alarmed the USA and the neighbors in the region.

The in-roads to the US the Chinese are achieving are alarming and point to their domination intentions, which severely menace our strategic position and humanity's liberties.

Chinese investments and loans to the US are reaching scandalous proportions, as well as the purchase of American debt, threatening the country's economy to become too dependent on China's money.

By the way, its origins are an extensive business relationship with our country for decades, which enriched China and put the US in debt.

At the same time, the Chinese have kept stealing technology, inventions, mechanical design, intellectual property, military ideas, and high tech devices. Our politicians are only watching from afar, and some are getting bribes to look the other way.

Factories like Foxconn and Pegatron use sensitive technology designed mostly by Apple engineers and others. They leak tech secrets to others around the World, creating a black market competing with us.

Such a situation is a much worse threat to our National Security than Russia was in the USSR days.

Besides, the Russians never achieved the Chinese people's skills in manufacturing.

During the USSR time, Russian product was imperfect, rudimentary, and almost laughable in some cases.

The size of Russia's economy is tiny, comparing it with China.

Over the past five decades, because our population got used to enjoying the products made in China, relatively inexpensive, with acceptable quality, our governments kept encouraging American entrepreneurs to open new factories, even at the cost of growing unemployment in our homeland.

We must consider that the Chinese worker's wages, on average, are about 10% of what an American craftsman earns. That is the main reason the Chinese product is so inexpensive.

Furthermore, under the Communist ruling, workers cannot even complain or ask for a raise. They live under slavery conditions, without proper healthcare or any other social benefits.

In his second term, Obama, through a massive regulation craze, provoked the closing of thousands of American Factories, and the migration of millions of American jobs to China, Mexico, and other countries. The move allowed popular articles to be inexpensive, which made the American consumers happy, of course, disregarding the future consequences we are learning now.

Our country's health system is dependent on 96 % of Chinese production and other countries in a minor percentage.

Penicillin essential ingredients are 96 % manufactured in China, the same with most prescriptions, including Diabetes, Heart Disease, High Cholesterol, or any other critical drug to keep the American people healthy.

Also, medical supplies as gowns, gloves, masks, gauzes, mechanical survival equipment as ventilators, scans, radiological equipment, and thousands of devices essential to our good health.

Not only in medicine, but National Security items like parts for Military aviation, ground Military equipment, components for radars, even missiles, and nuclear devices are "Made in China."

If what was said is not stupid on our part, trusting our National Security to Communist Government, then I do not know what would be.

Our Lawmakers need to wake-up from their "siesta" and begin earning the high salaries we, the People, pay them.

If the Communist Government of China decides to close its big hand, the whole American population will be trapped inside the fist.

This case is the greatest failure of past Governments, and the American voters deserve part of the blame.

The House of Representatives today is a pit of Postmodern Liberal snakes playing politics while receiving thousands of dollars from the American People they do not deserve.

Recently, President Trump, through executive orders, removed many of the regulations imposed by Obama and, together with a severe reduction of corporate taxes, managed to allow many large companies with factories in China, to return to the USA and open thousands of new plants, generating thousands of new jobs.

Such moves significantly impacted our economy, lowering the unemployment rate to 3.5 %, the lowest ever, just before the Coronavirus dreadful infection spoiled the Party.

Consequentially, the worker's wages increased due to the business's difficulty in finding qualified laborers' help. High-Tech executives hate that. They prefer to import labor from India and China, paying them much less than paying American workers.

Unfortunately, the COVID-19 Pandemic temporarily ruined the trend.

The US needs more immigrants, no doubt about it, but as President Trump insists, the new immigrant's selection should be among the more qualified people. As Trump affirms, immigration must be based on merit, not recklessly as the Democrats want, to enroll new voters, but orderly and selected accordingly with the country's needs.

We all hope the present Pandemic could soon be under control, and our economy could rapidly recover even to a higher standard we had a few months ago.

140 -Socialism Nefarious Consequences.

The old traditional Democrat Party has radically moved to the far left. So far, it has encountered the most totalitarian Communist ideology, now in the Chinese style, the despotic Fascist doctrine on the right and the autocratic Islamist Theology, with its unique totalitarian practices.

However, how Islam reconciles with the Postmodern Liberals is a mystery since their philosophies are very far apart.

Democrats ignorantly turn their faces the other way. Islamists know they could not live with most of the Postmodern Liberals lifestyle. Gay life, women's liberation, Atheism, Democracy, elections, sexual freedom, genderless society, widespread drug culture, and many other aspects we all know the Democrats love, Radical Muslims hate.

Besides, Islam is not welcome in the Chinese Communist country. More than one million Uyghur Muslims are kept prisoners in a Chinese concentration camp; they call Re-education camps.

Scores of radical Liberals have taken center stage, acknowledging the 'new' Liberal's takeover and the indoctrination by the new Postmodern Liberalism ideology via Political Correctness.

They are changing education centers, unfolding destructive practices, featuring violent and wholly undemocratic behavior.

As I write, these vandals are suppressing the First Amendment Free Speech right, destroying public and private property, burning American flags and Police cars, beating their opponents, and spreading complete chaos in the education system, as exposed in Chapter 1.

These New Postmodern Liberals promote equality, a genderless society, promiscuity, and education disarray, as previously described.

They befriend terrorist organizations, want welfare for everyone, including undocumented migrants. They have plans to extend free State Healthcare to all illegal aliens, and an array of issues that a few years ago were considered unacceptable for our country, including a borderless Nation, now, with the Pandemic, confirmed like an insane idea.

Naturally, Postmodern Liberals forget we were at war with the Left; President Reagan labeled Communism as the "Evil Empire."

The labeling still applies.

141 -The American People Need Education!

Now, Conservatism needs to implement a "Road Warriors" front activity.

In our opinion, it is necessary to start a campaign geared to educate the public about the situation of our society and the perils at sight if Democrats manage to implement their "totalitarian" plans.

Education, education, education, is needed now, more than ever before.

The World's history, especially in the 1400 years of Islamic invasions and destruction, must be exposed, publicized, as well as Socialism and Communism history, intentions, and goals. People need education. A smart saying!

"People who forget their past are condemned to suffer their mistakes all over again."

The Conservative Movement needs to become a real Movement to engage everyone that does not agree with the Lefty/Liberal/Islamist/Anarchist alliance. They all have a common denominator: Totalitarianism.

People must have a home; we need to fight for that ideal.

The times of "taking things for granted" ended. We live in a different world now, and if a few months before we were unsure, the Coronavirus import from Wuhan, China, is an undoubted confirmation that we are in a whole different World, active now.

We need to keep fighting for our conquests. Democracy, Republicanism, and Freedom are not gifts.

We have to earn them every day, or we are bound to lose them. Conservative activism is necessary, now more than ever, because the twisted minds of the Postmodern Liberals are inching in, while Conservatives rest on the assumed freedom!

So, we must consider that our enemies would try to take away from us whatever we do not defend.

Philosophy is an old but new weapon Republicans must use against Postmodern Liberalism. Education about historical facts, especially the relationship with Socialism/Communism and Islam, needs to be published, adding Postmodern Liberalism.

The American People need to educate about the past.

Please, be assured when I write about repealing Islam regarding their actual politics, not the philosophy. The Clerics in command are trying to apply the rules thru the original intentions. Islamists must adapt to modern times like other religions have done it.

Moreover, even the lesson that we have learned from the COVID-19, although maybe not yet fully digested, that all the unnecessary, brutal, inhuman killing of animals that triggered the Coronavirus on the wet markets of China must stop, we better revise it right now.

Moreover, Scientists have discovered that a tiger in a US zoo carries the Virus, so other wild animals in their habitat also do. The found could mean those wild animals could be natural carriers of Coronavirus, undetected until now because their very occasional contact with civilization was rare. But in China, because the intense killing of wild animals for food is widespread, the Virus encountered a path to human lives.

Chinese people need to learn from other philosophical schools on how to respect life, including animals. Reading the Vedas could be a good source of such knowledge.

We are in this World to share it, not to destroy it. The Planet's destruction will occur in due course of time. We do not have to rush it.

The United States of America is the most prosperous Constitutional Republican Democracy on the Planet because of our past and present goals.

It is not the country that the Liberals want to make based on European and Communism China style, a failed experience on immigration, demographics, society, and economics.

The USA is so divided, especially on race and religion, with one group (Radical Islam) that opposes any compromising because their scriptures continue to be misinterpreted by the Clerics in command, mostly Iranian, backed by the Postmodern Liberal's ignorance of the facts.

Politically, the persistent pounding of totalitarian Communism, now seen in China's bullying escalation, should teach us a lesson.

Allow me to repeat:

Education, education, education, is needed now.

However, the said situation could only change from the inside.

The countries involved must eradicate the proposed extremism—something it will take various generations to accomplish.

Democrats need to think, re-think the issue; especially the Mainstream Media, with their highly influential megaphone, must stop the childish behavior. They must see that our country has reached the actual status because of our philosophy of life, not for what the Postmodern Liberal Movement is offering now.

The US population must look to our neighbors in South America and see the disastrous results that Socialism and Communism have left, and what to say of Communism's most significant failure in the USSR and Eastern Europe.

All of the lefty Government's history experiences have brought pain, corruption, death, financial crisis, and indebtedness but overall a sense of despair, depression, and distress. Some South American people, the latest victims of the Left, do not even have the money to buy a ticket and get out of the misery they live.

Venezuela is a vivid example. A country among the biggest Oil Producers is in such a state of necessity; it is hard to understand. They are hopeless, without a future, and stuck in the Socialist/Communist Government's corruption, still trying to follow Cuba's steps.

Seeing those experiences, the US Middle Class must learn that the Postmodern Liberal Movement now controlling the Democratic Party is a poisonous trick. Some very wealthy people manipulate the scene to keep the power under control and completely disregard the ordinary citizen's welfare.

One of the most evident operators is George Soros, a billionaire speculator interested in creating distress and commotion.

Sometimes it reminds us of Nero, the Roman Emperor, who burned the City of Rome, to watch the fire from his palace in the Mountain and enjoy the chaotic sight while playing the Lyre.

Also, the Hollywood elite, with their hidden Nazi philosophy baggage from the 1930s, are exercising their power, spreading the illusory way of life, the fantasy through an excess of Liberalism and sexual freedom that has brought only corruption and a lower lifestyle to the World.

However, those Oligarchs in Hollywood and Silicon Valley keep amassing fortunes while not paying decent salaries to most workers.

They only keep some minorities of employees handsomely paid, that are super loyal to the bosses and their philosophy. Liberalism is not a bad word, although the new concept of the "Postmodern Liberalism" with its sinister alliances definitively is.

Maybe the COVID-19 Pandemic, forcing social distance, could modify the reckless sexual relations practices and focus people toward a more philosophical approach. Who knows?

144 -One Reason Socialism And Communism Still Exist.

At one point or the other, most people had thought of the possibility to change Government style to the Left in its two variants: Socialism or Communism. It is a natural thought in some people's minds. People like Bernie Sanders and other Lefty politicians have developed over the years, a script that sounds very attractive, especially to youngsters and uneducated folks, ignorant of history.

The consistent inequality that allowed Bernie Sanders to raise a (multi-racial, multi-cultural, multi-ethnic movement,) as he often mentions, has a compelling reason.

The Capitalists individuals' greed, the vast fortunes accumulated, frequently acquired in suspicious ways, thru illegal practices, taking advantage of inside trading, and other dubious means, are harmful. People see the enormous differences of bank accounts balances between the Company's executives and employees, at times scandalous, unfair, and stomach-turning.

So, that is a significant reason for the existence of Communism, Socialism, and now, in China's example, what many political pundits call: State Capitalism; A combination of Socialist Capitalism and Communism, highly totalitarian, authoritarian, and despotic.

The Elite owners of the new technology companies dominating the World, and sharing Trillions of dollars in profits, are enamored with contemporary State Capitalism China's style and are abandoning the old-time Market Capitalism in practice in the West, to jump in the wagon of China and his totalitarian Government style.

Of course, they love authoritarianism, with its totalitarian practices and the Subject's indoctrination to obey their orders without question. They seem not to have time to lose bargaining with the workers, elevating the sharing and curbing their appetites for luxuries, extravagant lifestyles, and overall: power. That ultimate elixir: being closest to God! Yeah, power is the ultimate goal of a human being. Moreover, those Billionaires are so attached to the idea of absolute power that not getting is unthinkable! The horror!

Those are the same entrepreneurs who transferred the manufacturing of 96% of the Medical Supplies and Drugs essential to our survival to the Communist Government of China; Of course, with the help of Obama, Biden, and in part by Bush and Clinton.

The result is hard to describe, and it was discovered accidentally by the Pandemic lashing at our country at present.

We are discovering that we are totally in the hands of Communist China, our greatest enemy; trying to dethrone our country from the present influential status is unacceptable. The USA is fomenting Market Capitalism, Liberty, Freedom, and Justice for all.

The Chinese want to expand their despicable human slaving system, while we all are seeing them abusing most of their citizens to benefit an Elite of authoritarian despots.

Their greed became so uncontrollable that even knowing that by their attitude, they jeopardize the very existence of the USA, we keep doing business with them. High-Tech executives' insatiability for personal power and economic gains are more potent than their roots, the American Constitution, our Laws and Order, and our philosophical background full of pride and honesty.

Welcome to the new reality. Morals are dead; human decency is no longer critical; freedom of speech is out of fashion, in their way to obtain power. A sense of misery has invaded those corporate seats and corner offices, overlooking what they utterly disdain:

The American People.
Our Founding Fathers.
Our Constitution.
Our way of life.
Our Flag.

National Anthem.

Our history for two hundred and forty-some years.

They are the ones fighting for a Constitution other than the one written in 1787, but one that they could change to their desire to acquire more power.

It is sad. Very sad!
